

Increasing cloudiness this afternoon with a chance of thundershowers this evening, highs around 90. Thundershowers likely tonight, lows in the 60s. Showers tapering off Tuesday morning and cooler, highs in the low to mid 80s.

INFORMATION, PLEASE — Two of this year's Ohio State Fair information persons, Cathy Hinson, left, and Piper Tobias, right, direct a fairgoer to his destination from their booth in front of the administration building. The girls will be giving fairgoers free schedules of the daily events and answering questions during the Ohio State Fair, which continues through Labor Day, Sept. 1. Two additional booths are located inside the 17th and 11th avenue gates.

Outlook good for Mideast pact

ALEXANDRIA, Egypt (AP) — Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger flew back to Egypt today on his diplomatic shuttle amid high hopes for a new Sinai pact.

Kissinger went into session with President Anwar Sadat at his seaside summer residence at Mamoura, near Alexandria. Foreign Minister Ismail Fahmy and Vice President Hishni Mubarak also attended the meeting.

Prospects for an Israeli-Egyptian pact were brightened by an Israeli report that Egypt had agreed to another key point.

Foreign Minister Yigal Allon announced that Egypt had agreed to let Israel station its men in an electronic warning post on the western slope of the Gidi mountain pass, one of the two Sinai Desert gateways which Israel would return to the Egyptians. This would be located in the territory being returned to Egypt.

The post, at Umm Khashiba, would enable Israel to monitor Egyptian military moves and has been a key Israeli condition for relinquishing the Gidi and Mitla passes.

Allon said Egypt could have a corresponding surveillance post on the Israeli side of the Gidi pass to monitor Israeli military movements.

Kissinger was jovial and confident as he talked to newsmen late Sunday after five hours of negotiating with Israeli leaders.

"We are continuing to make progress and have not encountered any unexpected difficulties," he said. "On most major items agreement is close." But he added: "You can run into difficulties, and I don't want to make a final judgment."

Allon said "a great deal of agreement has been reached" between Israel and the United States.

Ismail Fahmy, Egypt's foreign minister, met twice with U.S. Ambassador Hermann Eilts to review reports Kissinger sent from Israel. Presidential spokesman Tahseen Bashir said the Egyptian government considered the negotiations "fluid and promising."

An Israeli foreign ministry spokesman said Kissinger would have to shuttle at least twice more between Israel and Egypt before he could conclude a pact. This would take him at least until Wednesday.

Among the problems still to be cleared up were:

—Israel's demand that U.S.

technicians help man six additional surveillance posts it wants set up in the Gidi and Mitla passes. "We are making progress in that direction," Kissinger said. But he also told the Israelis the U.S. Congress would have to authorize this use of American personnel.

—The line to which Israel will withdraw, and the distance that Egyptian forces will be able to advance after the pullback. Kissinger said "differences are narrowing" on that point.

—The wording of the numerous clauses in the proposed agreement. Israel wants exact language that will leave no room for later "misunderstandings."

—Future American peace moves, chiefly on the Syrian front.

Under new legislation

Salary hike scheduled for Judge Winegardner

By ED SUMMERS

Part-time municipal court judges, including Washington C.H. Municipal Court Judge Reed M. Winegardner, are scheduled for a salary increase due to legislation recently signed into law by Ohio Gov. James A. Rhodes.

Judge Winegardner will receive approximately a $5,000 raise over his presently yearly salary of $10,000. However, Washington C.H. city auditor Jack Stackhouse said it would probably take a while for the judge to receive his raise.

Stackhouse said Washington C.H.

City Council must now enact an ordinance to raise the salary before he can pay out any increase.

The new salary scale calls for part-time judges to receive $11,000 per year plus an amount not to exceed $9,000 per year based on a rate of 18 cents for each person in the voting district. Figuring the population of Fayette County at 25,200, this would mean that the annual salary for the Washington C.H. municipal court judge would be approximately $15,400.

Under the present agreement, the city pays 60 per cent of the salary and the county 40 per cent. However, Stackhouse said he did not have the foggiest idea on how the new raise would be handled. "We will have to meet with the county officials to find out how we will pay out the increase."

Stackhouse pointed out that the raise would also affect the salaries paid to acting judges. They are presently paid $45 per day, but that pay is also based on the present $10,000 salary broken down on a day to day basis. "We are paying out between $2,000 and $3,000 per year now for others who sit on the bench when Judge Winegardner is not present," Stackhouse added.

Washington C.H. attorney Robert Simpson and former Fayette County Common Pleas Court Judge John P. Case, both candidates for the Municipal Court bench in November, have been holding most of the court sessions recently.

The 75-year-old Judge Winegardner holds court one day per week. He will retire when his term expires Jan. 1.

Ford also attacks regulations

Business tax breaks urged by President

CHICAGO (AP) — Declaring America's economic machine is not running at top speed, President Ford today called for tax incentives for industry and an end to the "quicksand" of federal business regulation.

Ford said U.S. industry is starving for capital to expand but is strangled by inflation, restrictive tax laws and government red tape.

"Our financial ability to increase production is declining," the President said in remarks prepared for the convention of the American Hardware Manufacturers Assn. "This decline is curtailing needed growth in jobs and income and undermining our ability to compete internationally."

He said his administration policies, if adopted by Congress, would lead to "increased jobs, income and full recovery."

Ford noted that despite a high unemployment rate, 85 million Americans are at work. He said the challenge is to create 14 million new jobs by 1980 "to meet the needs of our expanding population."

The President said that just before Congress recessed for August he proposed to stimulate capital investment through tax incentives. Those proposals included an increased investment tax credit, tax exemptions on preferred stock dividends and an end to "double taxation on dividends — in which both the corporation and stockholder are taxed."

Ford continued: "As expected, these proposals have raised an outcry from some members of Congress ... but the Congress has come up with no alternatives. We must do something about expanding our sources of capital to create jobs — and we must do it now."

He said some experts estimate that total investment requirements could reach as high as $4 trillion in the next few years.

In his strongest statement yet about what he calls excessive government regulation, Ford told the manufacturers "my object is to get the federal government as far out of your business, out of your lives, out of your pocket and out of your hair — as I can."

"Government regulations and restrictions now cost consumers billions of dollars each year," he said.

"One of the goals I have set for myself as President is to cut big government down to size," he said. "I want to put an end to the mountain of paperwork and the quicksand of regulation which big government makes every American businessman cope with."

The President also said that, as part of his over-all program, "We must maintain an antitrust policy which validates our commitment to competitive markets."

Ford stopped here on his way back to Washington from a two-week western vacation.

Bank deposit stolen

Lone gunman robs local restaurant

A lone gunman staged an armed robbery at the Blue Drummer Steak House, 1156 Columbus Ave., late Saturday, according to Washington C.H. police officers.

Washington C.H. Police Chief Rodman Scott said Joseph Lutz, 3450 U.S. 22-E, manager of the Blue Drummer Steak House, was held up at 11:45 p.m. Saturday by a male Negro subject.

According to police reports, an undetermined amount of money was taken.

Investigating officers said the subject approached Lutz as he was walking to his car parked in the parking lot near Blackstone Street. Police said the unidentified man told Lutz he had seen children tampering with the auto. He then brandished a handgun and asked Lutz for the bank deposit bag containing the evening's receipts.

After handing over the deposit bag, Lutz was led to a nearby property behind 1137 E. Temple Street where he was forced by the gunman to lay on his stomach. The robber then threatened Lutz.

Police officers reported when the gunman paused to check inside the bank deposit bag, Lutz was able to obtain a better look at the man. When he raised up, the gunman sprayed Lutz with some type of chemical mace or tear gas, officers stated.

After spraying Lutz with the chemical substance, the robber fled the scene.

Police officers described the gunman as being about six feet, one inch in height, in his early to mid-20s and weighing approximately 195 pounds.

The robber was clad in a green army-type jacket and dark pants and had a bad complexion.

The restaurant manager was treated and released at Fayette Memorial Hospital for burns to his eyes.

Activities continue at Ohio State Fair

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio State Fair drew nearly a half-million visitors over the weekend, but was still off the pace set for the opening four days in 1974.

Fair officials said 244,513 attended the fair Sunday and 240,563 Saturday. Overall attendance this year is 815,098. It totaled 833,756 for the first four days of last year.

A hay loader, a self-raking reaper, a seed cleaner and an onion planter are among 1900s farm equipment on display at the turn of the century fair recreated by the Ohio Historical Center at the 1975 Ohio State Fair.

The "fair within a fair" gives fairgoers a glimpse at past exhibitions and a breather from the hustle and bustle of the modern fair.

Other features of the old-time exposition include a display of crafts by gunsmiths, tinsmiths and weavers in tents on the village grounds.

The village is open from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. daily throughout the fair and is accessible by a shuttlebus from the main grounds.

Longtime fairgoers might remember the flipper-dinger—a toy which consists of a ball supported on a column of air by blowing through a pipe. It's available in 1975 or 1900 style at this year's fair.

Concessionaires are selling a plastic version with a foam ball called a "dusie." The original flipper-dinger with a cornball and wooden pipe is available at the turn of the century fair.

The Ohio Commission on Aging was to present prominent senior citizen awards today to Mr. and Mrs. Hartford Steele, New Concord; Mrs. Mary Jackson, Flushing; P. Meek Keyser, Shadyside, and Harry Sears, Zanesville.

Paul Anka will entertain in the grandstand at 4:30 p.m. and 8:30 p.m. today. Pat Boone and his family will present a choreographed show in the grandstand Tuesday.

Match Hill, third place finisher in the Arden Down Stake at the Meadows in Pennsylvania, was rated as the early favorite in today's $24,350 Ohio State Trot Monday. Eleven freshman trotters will compete in two heats of one mile each.

Match Hill's stiffest competition was expected from Solo Hill. The twoscolts have met three previous times, with Match Hill victorious in all but one.

For Fayette County's Rusty Coe

Second championship 'fantastic'

COLUMBUS — To win the grand championship in the barrow show at the Ohio State Fair is great, but to win two years in succession is fantastic, says 15-year-old Rusty Coe, exhibitor of the 240-pound crossbred barrow.

Coe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Coe, Rt. 1, Jeffersonville, took the grand champion honors with a Chester White and Hampshire crossbred raised on the Coe farm.

The grand champion crossbred barrow was to be sold at 3 p.m. today in the fair's sale of champions.

Last year Coe sold the grand champion market barrow at the Ohio State Fair for a total of $26 per pound ($5,720) to Bob Evans Farms.

In addition to his champion crossbred, Coe showed the champion Chester White barrow and the reserve champion Duroc barrow. He also placed second in the junior showmanship competition.

He captured a number of lesser placings that would in themselves be an accomplishment for a young hog breeder. Coe took first place in the lightweight Duroc barrows, fourth place in the heavyweight crossbred barrows, seventh place in the lightweight crossbred, third place in the middleweight Chester White barrows, and first place in the lightweight Chester Whites.

Coe, a sophomore at Miami Trace High School, is the owner of several head of swine. He is a member of the Future Farmers of America chapter at Miami Trace High School.

The reserve champion barrow, a 240-pound purebred Duroc barrow, was shown by Joe Ehman, 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Ehman, Rt. 2, Orient.

Other breed champions were:

Berkshire — champion, Roger Snyder, Rt. 2, Leesburg; reserve, Ken Hempleman, Rt. 2, Carroll; Chester White — champion, Karen Bailey, Rt. 3, Eaton; reserve, Steve Worley, Rt. 5, London; Duroc — champion, Joe Ehman, Rt. 2, Orient; reserve, Rusty Coe, Rt. 1, Jeffersonville; Hampshire — champion, Kevin Igo, Xenia; reserve, John Bratton, Mowrystown; Landrace — champion, Rick Miller, Rt. 2, Elida; reserve, Rick Miller; Poland China — champion, Jeff Wippel, Rt. 1, Anna; reserve, Martin Black, West Milton; Yorkshire — champion, Mark Runyan, Urbana; reserve, Tom Jackson, Powell; Crossbred — champion, Rusty Coe, Jeffersonville; reserve, Mark Underwood, Rt. 1, Alger.

Trial slated for Greenfield man today on murder charge

HILLSBORO — Arthur (Sonny) Jenkins, 24, of Greenfield, was scheduled to go on trial today on a charge of murder in Highland County Common Pleas Court.
Jenkins is one of two men implicated in the April 17 beating death of James (Bob) Coe, 79, who resided in the Higginsville community near Greenfield.
If convicted of the murder charge, Jenkins could be sentenced to 15 years to life in prison. He would also be subject to a fine of as much as $15,000.
The other man charged with murder, Donald Pryor, 35, of Greenfield, will go on trial September 8. He is also charged with obstruction of justice and will be tried on that charge at a later date.

Jenkins and Pryor were indicted secretly by a Highland County grand jury eight days after Coe's death in the emergency room of Greenfield Municipal Hospital.
Jenkins is being held in Highland County jail in lieu of $50,000 bond. He is represented by two court-appointed attorneys, Ronald Swonger of Hillsboro and John B. House of Georgetown.
The state has issued subpoenas to 15 witnesses. The defense has summoned seven witnesses.

Ohio reformatory used for movie

MANSFIELD, Ohio (AP) — A pair of unlikely — and unlucky — "crooks" will rendezvous at the medium-security Ohio State Reformatory at Mansfield this week.
Movie stars James Caan and Elliott Gould are starring in the film "Harry and Walter Go to New York." The reformatory is the setting for on-location filming of the spoof about the pair of crooks in New England in 1892.
Harry and Walter are aspiring vaudevillians who turn their talents to safecracking. Diane Keaton as a zealous social reformer provides some help, while English actor Michael Caine gets in the pair's way as a famous, flamboyant safecracker.

The reformatory, built in the 1890's, serves as the meeting place of the film's major characters in the original comedy screenplay by Robert Kaufman and John Byrum. A rock quarry outside of Columbus will also be used the following week for filming a scene involving inmates mining.
The pros will be joined by 65 inmates at the prison and 250 area residents hired as extras by Columbia Pictures.
Potential actors lined up about 7 a.m. one day last week when Columbia began to interview for extras. Columbia had said it wanted to hire only those persons who were unemployed, so they hired at the local employment office.
More than enough amateurs showed up for their chance to be on the wide screen and pick up a few bucks at the same time.
"I don't want to be a real famous dude or anything," said Martin Meeker of Mansfield, one of those on line. "But I wouldn't mind getting in a closeup scene and saying a few words."
George Palmer, a New York City resident who was laid off three months ago by a law firm on Wall Street and now lives in the area, said, "I will take any part as long as it means work and money."

Opinion And Comment

A failure of muscle

Muscles are not all. Fresh evidence in support of this truism is found in the embarrassing failure of Mr. Seattle Physique to pass a Seattle police department physical examination.

It seems that Mr. Seattle Physique, who is a warehouseman named Pat Geroy, flunked the "Harvard step test." This involves measurement of the heartbeat after the subject has stepped up and down from an 18-inch bench 30 times a minute for five minutes. Geroy also was judged to have more than the maximum allowable 25 per cent of body fat.

Said he, upon receipt of this discouraging word, "I can't tell you what a blow to my pride it was." We can see his point. Anyone who lifts weights for three hours a day and gets named Mr. Seattle Physique is bound to be a little discomfited when told that he doesn't measure up to the physical requirements for service with Seattle's finest.

It does seem a trifle ridiculous, considering Geroy's striking physical development. Still, there's no getting around the fact that though lifting weights builds muscles it does not necessarily guarantee endurance. Muscles are not all, as Mr. Seattle Physique has frustratingly discovered.

WASHINGTON CALLING.... By Marquis Childs

Grim precedent set

SAN FRANCISCO — This beautiful city has been skirting the brink of really bad trouble with a police and firemen's strike opening the way to a breakdown of law and order. Whether it has been averted as rival power blocs compete for supremacy it is too early to say.

Except for the drama of the police strike and the brief walkout of the firemen the situation here is a familiar one: deterioration of services and the quality of life as the tax take falls behind constantly rising demands augmented by the upward spiral of inflation.

In the immediate aftermath of the strike what was most surprising was the relative calm in a city that was tops in 10 cities in the incidence of crime. With only 10 per cent of the police force on duty, most of them supervisory personnel, reported crimes were scarcely more than normal despite sensational newspaper headlines.

Mayor Joseph Alioto held out against the mounting pressure of the county Board of Supervisors demanding intervention by the National Guard or the State Patrol to save the city. The Board, with competing authority in the same contiguous area, fired off a telegram to Gov. Edmund G. Brown Jr. in Sacramento asking for immediate help. Alioto insisted they had no right to do this.

In the end he used his emergency powers to give the public employees the 13 per cent increase they asked. This caused an immediate outcry over the inflationary consequences of such a big pay hike.

Governor Brown was sitting quiet and saying nothing although according to his executive secretary, Gray Davis, he has the authority to act in the kind of emergency presented by the walkout in San Francisco.

To have sent in the state patrol or the National Guard might have touched off a conflict with the striking policemen, most of whom carried some arms as they walked the picket line. The result could have been internecine warfare in the city's streets.

As his restraint in the current drama demonstrated, Brown, in his short time in office since his election in 1974, has become one of the most paradoxical figures in American political life.

He was looked on with dark suspicion by Republicans and conservative Democrats as a radical who would resort to the old formula of more welfare and more social services.

Instead taking a hard look at the whole structure of government handouts, top heavy state payrolls and the squeeze on the tax payer he has called for a pause and perhaps an overhaul.

As remarkable evidence of the change, Brown recently held a meeting with 15 of the state's leading industrialists to discuss how to cut some of the red tape that has been an obstacle, according to the industrialists, in attracting new industry to California.

What with restrictive laws on pollution and in other areas, this state stands close to the bottom in bringing in industry.

The industrialists were delighted with the governor's attitude. One of them was David Packard, executive director of Hewlett-Packard, the electronics firm with worldwide operations, who is also President Ford's finance campaign chairman. He speaks admiringly of the 37-year-old governor.

A committee of seven has been formed that will meet with Brown next month to consider how to clear away what the industrialists feel is a thicket of government restriction impeding business development. Anyone predicting this development last January would have been regarded as a candidate for a lunatic asylum.

This, it is hardly necessary to add, is no answer to the crisis of San Francisco. While the police strike was on, a delegation of elderly women testified before a legislative committee in Sacramento to the "living hell" of the city's streets. They have been so intimidated by repeated muggings that they are afraid to go to church or the grocery store.

While the pay raise bought time, it is surely a stop gap. The precedent of a police strike has a sinister meaning for all cities.

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS OF FAYETTE COUNTY, OHIO
Harold A. Hise, County Treasurer of Fayette County, Ohio, Plaintiff, vs.
Charles Blanton, Ann Blanton, and Montgomery Ward & Company, 139 W. Court St., Washington C. H., Ohio, Defendants.

Charles Blanton, Ann Blanton, and the unknown heirs, devisees, assigns and personal representatives of Charles Blanton and Ann Blanton, whose residences are unknown will take notice that on the 25th day of July, 1975, Harold A. Hise, County Treasurer of Fayette County, Ohio, filed a complaint in the Common Pleas Court of Fayette County, Ohio, in Case No. CI-75-197, against them and other parties praying for foreclosure of a tax lien and for other relief that may be just and proper and concerning the real estate described as follows:
Situate in the Township of Union, County of Fayette, and State of Ohio:
Beginning at a point in the centerline of U.S. Route 22 at northeast corner of the 2.03 acre tract conveyed to Pearl Blanton by deed recorded in Deed Book 86, page 376, Fayette County Recorder's Office, said point bears north 79 degrees 59' W. a distance of 361.35 feet from the intersection of the center line of U.S. Route 22 and the north right-of-way line of the Pennsylvania Railroad.
Thence S. 5 degrees W. along the east line of said 2.04 acre tract, a distance of 114.70 feet to an iron pipe in the north right-of-way line of the Pennsylvania Railroad; thence S. 82 degrees W. along the north right-of-way line of the Pennsylvania Railroad, a distance of 147.59 feet to an iron pipe.
Thence N. 5 degrees W. along a new line through said 2.04 acre tract and parallel to the east line of said 2.04 acre tract a distance of 160.51 feet to a point in the centerline of U.S. R. 22.
Thence S. 79 degrees 59' along the centerline of U.S. R. 22 a distance of 144.35 feet to the place of beginning, containing 4543 acres and subject to all legal highways.

As parties defendants, you are required to answer on or before the 22 day of Sept., 1975, or the prayer of the complaint will be granted.

Ohio perspective Young solon has big victory

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Sherrod Brown is sitting on top of the world.

For more than two hours the other day, a packed House chamber witnessed debate on an item-pricing bill sponsored by state Rep. Sherrod Brown.

When it was over, the 22-year-old Mansfield legislator was walking on air. It wasn't his first victory on the House floor, but it was the most satisfactory thus far.

Better, perhaps, than winning the first time he ever ran for election. When you win with a controversial bill that gets support from both sides of the floor, it's too sweet to believe.

The item-pricing bill requires stores to continue to mark prices on individual items regardless of a new computer-scanner check-out system — if the item costs more than 10 cents.

The Retail Clerks Union, with the considerable aid of the AFL-CIO, backed the bill. The Retail Merchants, described as a powerful lobby, opposed it.

It was a big victory, a moment to remember.

Coming off the floor, Brown was surrounded by friends, fellow legislators, lobbyists and hangers-on, all reaching for his hand like it held a $1,000 bill. Throughout the afternoon and at an evening reception at the nearby Sheraton Hotel, Brown was a celebrity.

To find Sherrod Brown, a visitor is advised to enter the Statehouse Annex building and start making right turns. When the visitor can no longer make right turns, he has arrived in a tiny office Brown calls home.

Physically, Brown is thin and gangling and comes off his chair one quick part at a time. His hair is long and a mustache is being born. The smile is friendly and the first greeting of "Hi, how are you?" is as sincere in tone as a visitor could wish.

You honestly could believe he had been waiting just to see you.

On the Wednesday his bill passed, he was nervous, running from place to place to round up support, and find more information for his opening floor speech. Intermittently, he wrote the speech in longhand.

There were visitors to the cubicle — legislators, reporters and even a lobbyist or two. The phone jangles and Brown holding up his visitor with a hand and a grin, carried on a rapid-fire conversation.

A radio reporter dropped by and Brown talked into a microphone and tape recorder. His quick, but easy, microphone style gets the interview over efficiently.

He was nervous, but having the time of his life.

For lunch he walked to a nearby quick food restaurant and took a mini-carroty lunch to the Statehouse lawn for a bit of music and relaxation among the city's thousands of office workers.

"I don't eat out with lobbyists," he said. "I guess they think I'm strange that way."

Dear Abby:

ABIGAIL VAN BUREN Reader confused by difference in doctors

DEAR ABBY: What's the difference between a psychiatrist and a psychologist? They are both called "doctor". Can you tell me without using a lot of big words?

F.A.
DEAR F.A.: I'll try. A psychiatrist is also a PHYSICIAN and as such, has a degree in medicine. A psychologist does not.

They both treat people with emotional and mental problems, however.

A psychiatrist (because of his medical credentials) is licensed to prescribe drugs to his patients. A psychologist is not.

DEAR ABBY: Five years ago, our daughter-in-law (Nell) divorced our son saying she was going to marry a very rich man. Our son was all broken up because he and Nell had two little girls, ages 7 and 9.

After the divorce, the girls went to live with their mother, and our son took them for weekends and holidays, and maintained a wonderful relationship with them.

Now our son is marrying a fine young woman. She loves our grandchildren, and they love her. The girls (now 11 and 13) have been invited to the wedding, but Nell is raising a big fuss, saying they may not go because it is "improper."

Where was Nell's sense of propriety when she left our son for a married man (also with a family) who hasn't married her yet-and no doubt never will?

Please reply soon.

GRANNY
DEAR GRANNY: Her sense of propriety was apparently out to lunch. She is mistaken. There is nothing improper about the girls attending their father's wedding.

DEAR ABBY: Our problem is an unusual one. My husband's parents have recently adopted a boy of 10, and they have decided (with the boy's permission) to change the boy's name.

Michael Joseph is my father-in-law's name. My husband, now in his early 20's, was named "Michael Joseph" after his father.

Now listen to this: My father-in-law wants to name his newly adopted son "Michael Joseph" after himself. The excuse my father-in-law has for naming two sons after him is that my husband is called "Mike" (a natural nickname for Michael), but his new son, his father insists, will be called "Michael" or Junior.

Are we being childish in objecting to another son in the family having the same name as my husband?

It will be terribly confusing because we all live in the same city.

PUZZLED
DEAR PUZZLED: It would appear that your father-in-law is on an ego trip. You are not childish; your father-in-law is.

Open air service draws over 300 persons

A total of 330 persons attended Sunday night's open air services at Miami Trace Stadium.

This was the fourth of this year's series of open air services sponsored by the Churches of Christ and Christian Churches of Fayette County. The fourth service was designated as youth night. Special music was provided by the team choir of the South Side Church of Christ and by the Sunshine Company of the First Christian Church.

The message of the evening was delivered by Richard Crabtree, minister of the Jeffersonville Church of Christ. His message title took the form of the question, "Who is first in your life?" Rev. Crabtree declared, the Bible says, "in all things Christ must have the pre-eminence." He also said, "the life that you live shows who has first place in your life."

Special guest of the evening was Edwin Nestor, superintendent of the Washington C.H. School District. Nestor pointed out the fact that there are three levels of human conduct. These levels are legal, moral and Christian. The apex of which is Christian conduct. He remarked, "Our country cannot expect to gain much more materially until we catch up spiritually."

Next Sunday will be the final week of this year's open air services. The speaker for the evening will be Marshall Leggett, minister of the Broadway Christian Church of Lexington, Ky. The Broadway Christian Church is one of the oldest Christian Churches in America. The restoration movement had its beginning not far from Lexington, Ky. Rev. Leggett will speak on the restoration movement and the part it has played in the growth of our country.

Special music for next week's services will be provided by the adult choir of the First Christian Church.

The services begin at 7:30 p.m. each Sunday evening.

ANOTHER WIN — Local biking enthusiast Jim Galloway, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Galloway, 510 Damon Drive, registered another victory in his favorite sport recently when he captured the seven-mile Derby Day bike race in Leesburg. Galloway (left) averaged better than 25 miles per hour during the race and completed the course in 16 minutes and 31 seconds. Second place in the event was captured by Greg Ervin. The race was sponsored by the Yankee Peddler Bicycle Shop, Greenfield, for experienced bikers ages 15 to 27.

DIRECT DEPOSIT

SOCIAL SECURITY CHECKS

WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW
CHECKS

1 Why is there so much interest today in the direct deposit of social security checks?

The Treasury Department has initiated a program to encourage the recipients of all recurring Federal payments to deposit these directly into a financial institution. Under this plan, an individual can have his check sent directly to his financial institution for deposit.

2 How will I benefit from direct deposit of my social security check?

It saves a special trip to the bank just to deposit your check. It eliminates worry about the check being lost or stolen in the mail. And, any time you are away from home or cannot come to the bank, your check is automatically deposited for you.

3 Can I have it deposited to my savings account as well as my checking account?

If you want a portion to go into the savings each month, ask your bank about an automatic transfer of a specified amount each month from checking into savings. By law your Social Security check must be directed to one specific account, either checking or savings.

4 How do I sign up for this service?

Simply complete the government form (SF1199) available at any bank. Personnel at your commercial bank will be glad to help you complete the form.

5 How do I get the information needed to complete the forms?

All the Social Security information you will need is on your monthly check or in your initial awards letter from Social Security. If you need any assistance or have any questions, your bank will be glad to assist you.

6 Do I send the form directly to social security?

No, you should complete the top half of the form only and take it or mail it to your bank. They will complete the form, sending one copy to you and one to Social Security.

7 After I sign up, when will the bank start receiving my check?

It should take about a month for the form to be processed. At the start of the program, it could take slightly longer.

8 What about terminating the direct deposit program?

Simply contact the Social Security office and request that they start sending the checks directly to you. Also notify your bank.

9 Is there any charge for this service?

No, it is a completely free service of your local bank.

10 What if the amount of my check changes?

The correct amount of your check will be deposited each month.

11 I get payments from both the social security and supplemental income. Do I have to fill out two forms?

Yes, a separate form is necessary for each check you receive.

12 My spouse and I receive a check jointly. Can we use direct deposit?

Yes, just so the account in which it is deposited is in both your names.

Jeff Methodist Church setting for wedding

Miss Debbie Bowsher, daughter of Mrs. Joseph Fisher of Jeffersonville, and Lawrence Bowsher of Columbus, exchanged marriage vows with Christopher Humphreys, son of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Humphreys, 1020 Millwood Ave., Aug. 16 in the Jeffersonville United Methodist Church. The Rev. Eugene Griffith performed the double ring ceremony at 7:30 p.m.

Organist for the ceremony was Mrs. Kenneth Spahr of Jeffersonville and soloist Miss Connie Hughes of Washington C.H. Pink roses adorned the altar.

The bride wore an ivory gown with fitted waist trimmed with lace bib. Her full skirt went into a long train. Matching lace was all around the hemline of the gown and the train and bottom of the puffed sleeves. Her elbow-length veil of illusion was caught to a headband of lace, and she carried six long-stemmed pink roses.

The four attendants, Mrs. Philip Pittstick of Xenia, Miss Regie Roush and Miss Betsy Hartman of Jeffersonville, wore shades of pink, their dresses long double knit with long sleeves trimmed in ivory lace and big garden hats all in pink. They each carried a single rose with greenery. Mrs. Eddie Strausbaugh of New Holland was matron of honor, and was gowned like the other attendants.

Eric Krieger of Jeffersonville served as best man. Matthew and Danny Humphreys, brothers of the groom, and Harvey Bryan of Jeffersonville seated the wedding guests.

Fellowship Hall of the church was the setting for the reception. The three-tiered wedding cake in ivory was topped by bride and groom figurines. Hostesses for the reception were Miss Toni McDonald and Miss Donna Swigert, both of Jeffersonville, and Miss Connie Hughes of Washington C.H.

Senior Citizen b'day party at SC Center

The Senior Citizens of 723 Delaware St., met Friday for their regular bi-monthly covered-dish luncheon and program honoring those who had birthdays in July and August. The plans for the day were made by Miss Mary Frances Snider, SC director, with the assistance of those who had birthdays in May and June.

Special tables were arranged for the honored members which were centered with flowers. Favors were given to them. The invocation was given by the Rev. Henry Simmons.

Among the guests present were Randy Thomas and his nephew, Carl Parker, Mrs. Sarah Brown, Mrs. Marcia Davis and Mrs. Walter Rodgers and daughter, Angela. Mrs. Bessie H. Maley was welcomed as a new member.

Mrs. David told of her work in Fayette County as a co-ordinator and reference person for the work known as Help-Anonymus.

Mrs. Art Haugen and Mr. Ben Englen represented the Senior Citizens at the Bi-Centennial committee meeting recently. Mrs. Haugen asked members to offer suggestions as to the type of activity they thought Senior Citizens should have for the Bi-Centennial celebration.

Miss Snider announced that a bus load of members will be attending the Ohio State Fair on Tuesday.

A hilarious style show called "Now and Then" was planned by Mrs. Russell Giebelhouse. Various articles of clothing were modeled showing the styles of the present in contrast with the styles of years gone by. Appropriate music, both vocal and instrumental, accompanied the parade of styles. Helping with the music were Mrs. Thomas, Floyd Dowler, Jesse Taylor, Ted Merritt, Emmitt Shaper, Mrs. Harry Fultz and the rhythm band of 20 members.

Those who modeled in the "Now and Then" style show were Mrs. Hazy Hidy, Mrs. Orville Waugh, Miss Angela Rogers, Mrs. Edgar Richardson, Mrs. Harry Fultz, Mrs. Helen M. Thornton, Mrs. Everett Riley, Miss Snider, Mrs. Edith Scott, Mrs. Arthur Grimm, Mrs. Floyd Baughn, Mrs. Roy Smith, Mrs. Frances Toops, Mrs. Ray Weiland and Mrs. Albert Hyer.

Mrs. Sarah Brown, deputy sheriff, told very interesting hints about how to protect oneself, one's family and property.

The program was closed with the rhythm band playing several numbers.

Open house is planned for golden anniversary

"Open House" is planned from 2 to 4 p.m. Sunday (Aug. 31) honoring Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Dixon of 2906 Miami Trace Rd., the occasion being their golden wedding anniversary.

The observance will take place at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dixon, 2842 Miami Trace Rd. near Good Hope.

Mr. Dixon and the former Katherine Perry were married Sept. 2, 1925, in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Perry.

The couple has the one son, Charles, two grandchildren, Mrs. Gordon Boyer of Washington C.H., and Mrs. Edwin Newlan of Greenfield; and seven great-grandchildren.

Posy Garden Club plans Bi-Centennial celebration

Members of the Posy Garden club met with Mrs. Harry Thraill early Wednesday for a buffet breakfast. Guests were seated on the screened porch overlooking a wooded valley where they enjoyed the many bird songs and could identify the birds at the feeders. Roll call was answered with favorite bird calls.

Mrs. Kenneth Campbell gave horticulture hints on gourds to grow for bird houses and showed one made of cedar.

Mrs. Carl Benner had an exhibit of bird feeders made by Smith Benner of Jackson. Mr. Benner, a senior citizen, has the interesting hobby of making martin houses and feeders.

Mrs. Ethel Wilson read a paper on "Gardens on the Wing." She said that birds are nature's bonus to the gardener; they help keep insects under control, their songs are a delight and they are a joy to watch. One can plant trees and shrubs with small fruits to attract birds, also remember they like water in a pool or bird bath.

Mrs. Thraill made an arrangement entitled "Flight" from red dahlias driftwood and ivy. Members enjoyed her dahlia garden, which is now in full bloom. She cut feathery coxcomb for drying, to use in winter bouquets. She also pointed out her bluebird boxes and wren houses, also the method of keeping cats and squirrels from molesting birds at the feeders.

The club voted to cancel the applebutter making project because of lid scarcity.

Mrs. Jess Schlichter, president, reported the club had won ribbons for Sweepstakes, Best of Show, distinction, beauty, five firsts, one second and a third at the recent flower show at the Fayette County Fair.

Plans were completed for a Home Placement Flower Show entitled "Early Settlers from 1:30 until 7 p.m. Sept. 24, and will feature the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Schlichter on the Myers Rd. The house was built about 1830, by Major Samuel E. Myers, a retired War of 1812 officer.

Mrs. Fern Miller will demonstrate spinning with vegetable dyed wools and Mrs. Bess Seaman will demonstrate quilting. There will be a display of woven coverlets, baskets and quilts, also other antiques.

In keeping with the "Early Settlers" theme, apples and cider will be served in the backyard.

This is the club's contribution to the country's Bi-Centennial observance and will be open to the public.

Those enjoying the morning were Mrs. Bess Seaman, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Benner, Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. Lester Haines, Mrs. Jesse Schlichter, Mrs. W.B. Edwards and Mrs. Arthur Schlichter.

Postal service losing battle against mail foulups?

By HOWARD ANGIOINE
Associated Press Writer

Americans mail almost one billion letters a week. Millions of them reach their destinations later than they should, and some never arrive. Why? Like the girl in the nursery rhyme who was either very good or horrid, the combination of machinery and human beings at work handling the U.S. mail can mesh beautifully one minute to provide good service, then mess everything up the next.

Postal officials minimize the extent of delays, claiming that service is good and complaints are declining. But examples of foulups abound:

—A company in New York mails an envelope of paychecks to its Phoenix office for distribution to employees there. The envelope arrives eight days later.

—A young woman mails a bill payment to a local department store three days before the deadline for receipt. It arrives five days after the deadline, and she is charged interest because it was late.

—Two letters, mailed in the same box at the same time, reach neighboring destinations several days apart.

The Postal Service calculates that it provides "on time" delivery for 24 out of every 25 local letters and for 23 out of every 25 long-distance letters.

"On time" means the next day within metropolitan areas if a letter is picked up by 5 p.m.; within two days if a letter is traveling 600 miles or less; and within three days if a domestic letter must travel more than 600 miles. Sunday is not counted as a "day."

There are reasons to question the accuracy of the Postal Service figures, but if they are accepted and applied to statistics showing that there is roughly a 50-50 split between metropolitan and long-distance mail, they point to late arrival each week for 20 million metropolitan letters and 40 million long-distance letters.

The sampling system the Postal Service uses to gauge delivery speed is unable to provide estimates on how many letters are lost.

From the time you put a letter in a mail box until it reaches its destination, it must cope with dozens of opportunities for delay.

Drivers assigned to collection routes have been known to miss pickups at certain boxes, a letter can get lost in the folds of a mail sack or other cracks and crevices along the way, bad weather can disrupt airplane and truck schedules, post offices may not have enough clerks on duty, and carriers can make mistakes.

But the number of delays caused by these problems are minuscule. Most often, the blame for delays — especially those of several days — can be traced to the letter-sorting process.

Any analysis of the sorting process quickly focuses on the machinery that is used, especially the large letter-sorting machines where man, machinery and the U.S. mail encounter notable success and disaster.

These machines, and the sorting clerks who operate them, handle roughly half of the letters mailed in the United States at least once — and often three or four times if a letter must be routed through several post offices.

Clerks sorting letters the old way — by hand, into a box of pigeonholes — also make mistakes, but postal officials acknowledge that the method involves fewer errors than the combination of men and machines. Officials add, however, that the hand method is slower and more expensive.

The typical letter-sorting machine — an LSM in postal jargon — is a rectangular metal box about four feet wide, taller than the walls of the average one-story house and almost twice as long.

Twelve clerks, sitting at desk-size consoles attached to the LSM, look at letters that are placed in front of them at the rate of about one per second by a little mechanical wrist with a suction cup hand. For each letter, a clerk types two or three numbers — usually part of the zip code — that the machine uses to route the envelope to one of the 277 aluminum sorting bins that honeycomb one side of the machine.

The problem is that some letters don't get to the right bins, either because the operator strikes a wrong key or because the machine makes a mistake. And some letters never get to any bin — they fall into the works and must be pulled out later, often in mutilated form. Sometimes it's possible to decipher the address, sometimes it isn't.

The government's General Accounting Office, reporting last summer on a check of LSM operations in three Southern post offices, said console operators have a "rigorous and tedious job."

GAO found that 30 per cent of the 141 operators it tested made errors 10 per cent of the time, and "only 18 per cent were within the 2 per cent error rate allowed for qualification" as an LSM operator. GAO blamed the machines themselves for errors 1.8 per cent of the time.

Apply the percentages to LSM volume, and you're quickly into the millions. Postal officials say 562 LSMs in operation nationwide sort an average of 25,000 letters per hour, eight hours per day.

Assume that man and machine have a total error rate of 5 per cent, and it works out to 702,500 mistakes per hour, or 5.62 million per day. That's still a fraction of total volume, but it's enough to cause a lot of problems. It's also expensive — GAO estimated that rehandling missorted mail cost $1,060 per day in one post office.

Postal officials say their first line of defense against mistakes is manned by clerks who empty the machine bins. The clerks rifle through the letters, culling out hundreds of missorted ones per hour. But mistakes still slip through the defense line.

An Associated Press reporter, who wondered how many mistakes are not caught, obtained permission to check the trays where letters are placed after they have been rifled by clerks.

Any letter not headed for the destination marked on the tray faces a needless journey, unless it is lucky enough to be caught in one of the spot checks postal officials say are made of rifling efficiency.

On visits to six post offices in five Eastern cities, the reporter selected at random trays containing letters not due to be looked at again until they reached post offices in the Midwest and West.

Out of 4,657 letters checked, 267 — or 5.7 per cent — would have gone astray for several days if they had not been spotted by the reporter. They included 128 letters that would normally have reached their destinations the next day.

Even if a letter reaches the correct LSM bin, however, it still faces sorting hazards that can cause long delays.

Every so often a rifling clerk takes a handful of envelopes from a bin and eliminates mistakes, but places the bundle in the wrong tray. That appeared to have been the reason for many of the errors in the tray of mail from Kansas City — missorted letters appeared in clusters, suggesting that a clerk had mistakenly put handfuls of letters for Missouri cities in the tray for New York mail.

Once a tray is filled, new hazards for misrouting appear. The letters travel in bags or in cardboard containers that postal workers say are occasionally mislabeled. And even if correctly labeled, it's possible for dock workers to load the bags on the wrong truck.

In its report on mail delays, the GAO concluded: "The Service has not been completely successful in meeting its first-class mail delivery standards."

Jewelry stolen from Alice Faye

NEW YORK (AP) — Actress Alice Faye was enjoying a late snack at an East Side pub when someone broke into her chauffeured limousine and carted off two cosmetic cases containing about 20 pieces of jewelry.

Miss Faye, who estimated her loss from the theft early Sunday at $25,000, said many of the stolen articles were gifts from her husband, bandleader Phil Harris.

She said she was away from the car with her press agent, Jewel Baxter, and the chauffeur for about 40 minutes.

Miss Faye, who grew up here, had just arrived in the city after an out-of-town engagement.

Non-person back as Chinese leader

TOKYO (AP) — Wang Pingnan, purged as vice foreign minister during China's cultural revolution, has been named president of the People's Association for Friendship with Foreign Countries.

The association was set up in 1954 to promote Peking's foreign policy.

Wang, 69, was politically "rehabilitated" to assume the post.

He lost his foreign ministry position in 1967 when opponents called him a traitor to the revolution. He had held the position since 1964.

The announcement of the new appointment, broadcast by Hsinhua, the Chinese news agency, was monitored here Sunday.

Hank Williams Jr. reported better

MISSOULA, Mont. (AP) — Hank Williams Jr., the country singer injured in a fall while hiking Aug. 9, is no longer under intensive care.

Williams, 26 and son of the late singing star, Hank Williams, was hurt while hiking near the Continental Divide.

After being moved to a private room at a hospital here, Williams was visited Friday by country and western star Johnny Cash and his wife, June Carter Cash.

Two women injured in rural collision

Two women were injured in a two-car accident at 2:40 p.m. Sunday on CCC Highway E, eight-tenths of a mile north of Washington-Waterloo Road.

The Fayette County Sheriff's Department reported a car driven by Eleanor W. Skaggs, 60, Circleville, turned left into a private driveway at 3818 CCC Highway-E in front of an oncoming auto driven by Debra A. Krupla, 20, Bloomingburg. Ms. Krupla claimed injury from the mishap and Ms. Skaggs, who was cited for failure to yield right of way by deputies, showed visible signs of injury. It is not known whether or not the women were treated.

Sheriff's deputies investigated two additional weekend mishaps, one of which involved a stolen auto. Washington C.H. police reported five traffic mishaps over the weekend in which two citations were issued.

A car belonging to Norma J. Morrow, New Holland, was stolen from the Larry Hager residence on Dill Road around 2:30 a.m. Sunday. Sheriff's deputies recovered the auto after it had been involved in an accident at the intersection of Lewis and Dill roads at 3:30 a.m. Sunday. Deputies stated the auto was driven 171 feet off the left side of the roadway and back onto the roadway where it skidded around into the ditch, coming to rest on its left side. The Bureau of Criminal Investigation in London has been summoned to assist with the investigation.

A car driven by Linda M. Brown, 20, Leesburg, struck a deer which had run out in front of the car at 10:15 p.m. Sunday while Ms. Brown drove north on U.S. 62-S, two-tenths of a mile south of Rowe-Ging Road. Damage was moderate to the auto and deputies reported that after the animal was hit it ran off.

Cars driven by Michael A. Wilson, 26, of 1020 Broadway St. and Marjorie B. Bernard, 51, Sabina, collided on Court Street near the Fayette Street intersection at 5:30 p.m. Sunday. Police estimated moderate damage to both autos.

A motorcycle driven by Lisa J. Roberds, 17, of 924 Lakeview Ave., struck the rear of a car driven by Lowell Hammond, 67, Bloomingburg, on Delaware Street near the Market Street intersection at 4 p.m. Sunday. Police stated the cycle skidded on wet pavement.

A three-car collision on Court Street near the North Street intersection at 4 p.m. Sunday involved autos driven by David L. Hilderbrand, 18, of 1020 Rawlings St.; Scott E. Arehart, 16, Wilmington; and Tom Cook, 22, Greenfield. Police reported the Hilderbrand auto struck the rear of the Arehart auto causing it to hit the Cook car. Hilderbrand was charged by city police with failure to maintain an assured clear distance ahead.

A car driven by Janice M. Burnett, 23, of 1005 Millwood Ave., went out of control on wet pavement and struck a brick retaining wall at 424 E. Court St. Ms. Burnett was cited for no operator's license.

A car belonging to Elmer Smith Jr., 925 John St., was damaged when struck by a hit-skip driver in the municipal parking lot on S. Fayette Street Saturday night. Police are investigating.

Rhodesian meeting opens on black rule for nation

VICTORIA FALLS, Rhodesia (AP) — The Rhodesian constitutional talks between Prime Minister Ian Smith and black nationalist leaders opened on a bridge below the Victoria Falls today with Smith still adamantly opposed to black rule and the Africans still demanding it.

There was speculation of a breakthrough because Prime Minister John Vorster of South Africa and President Kenneth Kaunda of Zambia attended the opening session.

But Smith in a speech Saturday said his white-minority government has "no policy to hand our country over to any black majority government, and as far as I am concerned, we ever will have."

The Nairobi, Kenya, Daily Nation commented editorially that unless Smith was bluffing, he had doomed the talks to failure.

The black Rhodesian delegation was led by Bishop Abel Muzorewa, whose African National Council (ANC) is demanding immediate majority rule.

Smith said earlier that he might turn his back on the ANC and seek a political settlement with conservative black leaders amenable to continued white domination.

The opening meeting was held in a South African railway car parked on the Victoria Falls bridge over the Zambezi River, the border between Zambia and Rhodesia. It was the first time black and white Rhodesians have sat together to discuss the central issue in Rhodesian politics, the rule of the white minority over a black majority 22 times more numerous.

It was also the first public meeting of Vorster and Kaunda. They conferred for an hour together at Livingstone, on the Zambian side of the border, and then walked to the conference coach.

Muzorewa and the other ANC delegates also boarded the train from the Zambian side of the border while Smith came from the Rhodesian side.

The two Rhodesian sides also disagreed on the the future course of the talks.

Lockheed remains mum

WASHINGTON (AP) — A congressional panel is challenging Lockheed Aircraft Corp.'s assertion that business reasons prevent the company from disclosing the names of foreign persons and groups receiving more than $22 million in Lockheed payoffs.

Treasury Secretary William E. Simon and Lockheed chairman Daniel J. Haughton testify today before the Senate Banking Committee probing the payments that Lockheed acknowledges making since 1970.

Simon chairs a government board created to oversee a $250-million government loan-guarantee granted Lockheed in 1971 when the company was in precarious financial condition.

Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., chairman of the committee, said in announcing the hearings that Lockheed may have violated the terms of the loan agreement by making the payments.

The company has declined to say who received the money, claiming such disclosure "could have a serious adverse impact on several hundred million dollars of the company's present backlog and could result in a material adverse impact with respect to the company's future operations."

Lockheed, asserting the payments "are consistent with practices engaged in by numerous other companies abroad, including many of its competitors," defended the practice as "necessary in consummating certain foreign sales."

However, Proxmire has contended that "the public is entitled to know the full details of these payoffs, the names of the recipients, the countries and the items that are being sold through a system of bribery."

Lockheed now has about $1.6 billion worth of orders in some 30 foreign nations for its airplanes, chiefly the L1011 TriStar jet passenger plane and the C130 cargo plane. About 12 per cent of all its sales are to foreign governments.

Low pressure over south central Canada this morning with a cold front dropping from the low across Iowa was expected to push eastward toward Ohio Tuesday, reaching the northern part of the state by morning.

Temperatures were expected to reach the upper 80s and low 90s over Ohio again today. Thunderstorms were forecast again this afternoon, mainly in the northwest portion and will become likely over the state tonight as the front approaches.

Oil firm urges control spreadout

WASHINGTON (AP) — The chairman of Mobil Oil Corp. says oil price controls should end gradually, rather than expire abruptly next weekend, to avoid a "shock to America's fragile economic recovery."

Rawleigh Warner Jr., chairman of the third largest U.S. oil company, said "nobody really knows" what the total economic effect will be if controls end suddenly but it "could stimulate higher prices, higher wages and perhaps some loss of jobs."

Warner, in a letter to members of Congress, said a gradual end of price controls over several years "cushions the impact of higher prices on the consumer over a period of time." Warner thus became the first U.S. oil executive to oppose a sudden end to controls.

Mobil has both U.S. and foreign oil sources.

Warner also criticized proposals that would impose a windfall-profits tax on the oil companies if controls end suddenly. Such a tax could fail to achieve its objectives in the future because today's windfall profits "may become tomorrow's vital earnings," Warner said.

Price controls that place a $5.25-a-barrel ceiling on about 60 per cent of U.S.-produced oil automatically expire Aug. 31, allowing the price to climb to the unregulated world price of around $12 a barrel.

Congress has approved a sixmonth extension of the controls. President Ford has promised to veto that measure, and administration energy experts maintain the economic impact of decontrol will not be severe.

Federal Reserve Board Chairman Arthur Burns predicted Sunday that gasoline would increase by 2 cents to 2½ cents a gallon if oil price controls end suddenly, Ford removes his $2-a-barrel tariff on imported oil and there are windfall profits taxes on the oil companies.

Congress is scheduled to vote on whether to override the veto shortly after the lawmakers return from their August vacation on Sept. 3.

Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield, in a speech Sunday at Libby Dam, Mont., with Ford sharing the rostrum, said he hoped the President would not veto the extension.

Ford, in his formal remarks at the dedication of the $470-million Libby Dam, said this country is known for its ability to get people of different persuasions to sit down and try to work out problems.

He also declared the United States must act now to seek energy self-sufficiency. "We have delayed too long," the President said. "If we fail to get cracking on a solution, we will have to depend more and more on foreign sources of energy in the future."

Countians make marks at Ohio State Fair

Fayette Countians made their marks at the Ohio State Fair this weekend by bringing home several top ribbons.

Dan Schlichter, 10187 Prairie Rd.,

topped the open class market lamb show, and the Fayette County judging team finished second.

Both the champion and reserve champion in the open-class market lamb competition were entered by the Schlichter farm.

Susan Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Wilson, 530 Mayfair Dr., led the Fayette County judging team to its second place finish. Edged by the Marion County team's 1402 points, Fayette County's 1392-point total was good for second place. Miss Wilson chalked up 490 of a possible 550 points to finish second in the individual totals.

Rounding out the local team were Jeff Wilt and Mike Sollars, with Chris Garland serving as the alternate. Wilt and Sollars tied for 17th in the individual totals with 451 points each. Wilt is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alan Wilt, 3736 U.S. 35-S, and Sollars is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sollars, 2463

Bunker Hill-Glendon Rd.

The group judged three classes of beef cattle, three classes of hogs and two classes of sheep. They were also asked to explain the reasons for their point awards in several classes.

Several other Fayette County residents captured first-place ribbons. They included Marilyn Seifried, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Seifried, 1894 Flakes Ford Rd., who showed the first and fifth place midleweight Yorkshire barrows; Cindi Grover, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Grover, 2906 Parrott Station Rd., who had the first place Dorset pen of three the second and ninth place Dorset singles and the 11th place crossbred wether; Miss Wilson who in addition to judging entered the first, fifth, eighth and 12th place steers; and Belinda Melton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

Charles Melton, 6941 Eyman Rd., who had a first, two thirds and a 15th place in steer competition.

Alan Thompson won an "Outstanding of the Day" award for his advanced electricity project. Dwight Merritt entered a woodworking project, and Dick Davis placed 19th in the tractor rodeo.

Others who placed in the livestock competition were Steve Coe, fourth place in lightweight Chester White barrows; Brad Walters, ninth place in lightweight Duroc barrows; Debbie Cremeans, ninth place in middleweight Duroc barrows; Lowell Miller, 11th place in middleweight Duroc barrows.

Mark Holloway, third place in middleweight Hampshire barrows; Tony Walters, 10th place lightweight Hampshire barrow; Daphne O'Cull, third place Hampshire sheep and seventh place in all other breeds; Annette Cowden, third place Shopshire wether; Jill Schlichter, eighth place suffolk and sixth place crossbred ewe; Betsy Hartman, 13th and 23rd place crossbred ewes.

J.T. Perrill, third place steer; Louie Null, sixth place steer; Tim Lindsey, fifth and eighth place steers; Vicki Parks, fifth and 12th place steers; Mary Ann Wilson, sixth, eighth, 12th and 16th place steers; and Bill and John Mayer, who placed in steer competition.

Other local exhibitors included John and Jeff Wilt, Mike Sollars, Jeff Hughes, Chris Garland, Tammy and Tony Walters Linda Miller, Jim McCoy, Bill, Sandy, Tim Schaefer in hog competition; and Debbie Wehner, Kim McIntosh, Lisa, John, Don and Fred Melvin in sheep events.

Miscellaneous matters handled by commission

Only minor business was on the agenda of the Fayette County Board of Commissioners Monday morning.

The commissioners approved a request by the Fayette County Soil Conservation Service for an additional appropriation of $2,600. The money will be used to pay for an additional 16 weeks salary of Vincent Chrisman, assistant to the supervisor. Chrisman was originally hired under a grant from the U.S. Soil Conservation Service. He assists in drafting and survey work.

They also approved a minor repair and remodeling project at the Fayette County Health Department building and authorized the purchase of a storage cabinet and a four drawer file cabinet.

The commissioners were scheduled to open bids at 11 a.m. for a 16 by 60 foot silo to be constructed on the county farm but no bids were received.

Commissioners chairman Ray Warner also announced that the first hearing on the Rattlesnake joint ditch project was held Thursday. However, no action was taken and the hearing was continued 90 days so more information on the project could be obtained. The hearing date was scheduled for 1:30 p.m. Nov. 20 at the Mahan Building on the Fayette County Fairgrounds.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Phyllis Pollock, 36, of New Philadelphia, was crowned Ohio Homemaker of the Year Saturday at the Ohio State Fair.

basis in response to specific allegations.

In an interview, Tyler said department officials were on the verge of creating the permanent office at the time he became deputy attorney general four months ago.

"I said 'Wait a minute. Once you set up an office, you have to be sure there's something for them to do, you can't have everybody sitting around contemplating the walls,'" Tyler related.

Tyler indicated that he leans toward the ad hoc approach, with any allegations of misdeeds triggering a probe by department officials not connected with the accused agency. But he said, "I wouldn't say that's final. It's still very much up in the air."

Justice Department watchdog plan being studied by Levi

WASHINGTON (AP) — Atty. Gen. Edward H. Levi is considering appointing an internal Justice Department "watchdog" to investigate any future department scandals.

Levi and Deputy Atty. Gen. Harold R. Tyler Jr. are weighing the question while dealing with allegations of misdeeds in four major department agencies — the FBI, the Drug Enforcement Administration, the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration, and the Immigration and Naturalization Service.

The department as a whole and several of its branches have been brushed with accusations of scandal, some serious and some mere personality clashes, over the past three years.

The peak, of course, was Watergate and charges that department officials helped in the cover-up. The key department officials involved in the Watergate case all have resigned or retired, and their successors now search for ways to avoid being suspected of covering up crimes in the future.

Elliot L. Richardson, the attorney general who Nixon forced out of office during the Watergate case, proposed creating an inspector general's office as an independent investigator of department scandals.

His successor, William B. Saxbe, issued an order establishing such an operation last January. But the order took effect about two weeks before Saxbe resigned and never has been implemented.

Levi and Tyler now are considering whether to create a permanent full-time investigative office or to employ the same technique on a temporary

TV Viewing

By LEE MARGULIES
Associated Press Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP) — "Beacon Hill," a new series which CBS is unveiling with a special two-hour episode tonight—9-11 p.m. EDT, is a well-crafted and mildly engaging piece of material based unabashedly on "Upstairs, Downstairs."

Like its critically acclaimed English sire, seen in this country on the Public Broadcasting Service, "Beacon Hill" contrasts the rich and the poor in a colorful historical context.

The setting here is Boston, 1920, the eve of Prohibition. The household is that of Benjamin Lassiter, rich and powerful patriarch of a large Irish-American family and employer of a horde of servants.

The program, in which Lassiter and his wife, Mary, return home from Europe and plan a big party to usher in Prohibition, begins slowly because there are something like 20 main characters to meet and somehow keep track of.

It takes about 30 or 40 minutes to sort out names and faces and relationships, but after that the pace improves and it gets more interesting. There are some very funny moments interspersed with the drama.

In many respects, "Beacon Hill" is like a soap opera: lots of talk, little action, a preoccupation with people and their foibles — their faltering relationships, their drinking, their love affairs.

Especially their love affairs. Before the two hours are up we've learned of romantic entanglements between one of Benjamin Lassiter's four daughters and her voice teacher; the same daughter and one of her brothers-in-law; another daughter and a nephew of one of the servants; and Lassiter's 18-year-old granddaughter and his chauffeur.

There also are two visits by the chauffeur and Lassiter's one son to a brothel — where, by the way, just in case someone in the audience doesn't understand what profession these ladies are in, the writer has named the black madam Hortense.

Now if you're paying attention you'll note that in addition to all the other intrigue, there's a terrific blackmail angle here for the chauffeur. Beginning to get the drift? And this, mind you, is only the first episode.

"Beacon Hill" is so lavishly produced and boasts such uniformly fine performances and meticulous attention to details of the period that it seems somehow weightier than a regular old soap.

A sidelight on how insane the television industry is:

One of the CBS executives who played a key role in the development of "Beacon Hill" was Fred Silverman, head of programming. Since the schedule was announced, however, he has become president of ABC Entertainment and now is trying to sabotage the series.

Knowing the show is vulnerable in the early going because of its huge cast, Silverman is challenging it with a rerun of a successful ABC-TV movie, "The Legend of Lizzie Borden" with Elizabeth Montgomery.

Air crash kills man

CIRCLEVILLE, Ohio (AP) — One person was killed and another critically injured in the crash of a light plane during a fly-in at Pickaway County Veterans Memorial Airport Sunday afternoon.

The Pickaway County sheriff's office identified the man killed as a passenger, David Valentine, of near Stoutsville.

The pilot, Charles Fletcher, 54, of near Circleville, was taken to Doctors Hospital North in Columbus, where he was listed in critical condition.

According to witnesses, Fletcher's plane, a single-engine Taylorcraft, had just made a mock "bombing" run over the field where it dropped a paper bag full of sand.

They said the plane began to turn, then suddenly veered 180 degrees and plunged into the ground.

According to Sheriff Dwight Radcliff and Deputy J. Phillip Brown, who investigated the crash, the plane smashed into a field of wheat stubble about 200 yards from the end of the runway.

They said it took about 45 minutes to pry the two men from the wreckage.

The Federal Aviation Administration is investigating.

Jesuit priest marries woman

WASHINGTON (AP) — Dr. John J. McLaughlin, a Jesuit priest who was a White House adviser to President Richard M. Nixon, has married a woman who helped him in an unsuccessful Senate campaign five years ago.

McLaughlin and Anne Dore were married in a civil ceremony here Saturday. McLaughlin was released from his religious vows by Pope Paul VI before the wedding, a friend said.

McLaughlin was a staunch Nixon defender during Nixon's last days in office. He had held the White House post for three years, until Oct. 15, 1974.

Mrs. Dore, in her 30s, helped McLaughlin when he ran against Sen. John O. Pastore, D-R.I., in 1970. She later worked in public relations here and is employed by a private firm.

Ohio became widely known as the Buckeye State only in the Presidential campaign of 1840. Then William Henry Harrison was termed in a song "The Buckeye who follows the plow."

5 women planning ordination

WASHINGTON (AP) — Five more women plan to be ordained to the Episcopal priesthood in defiance of their church's hierarchy.

The five women, all deacons of the Episcopal Church, have sent letters to the church notifying them of their plans, according to the Rev. Alison Palmer.

The Rev. Palmer, who also is director of the Office of International Labor Affairs for the State Department, said Sunday night that she and the other four women will be ordained Sept. 7 at St. Stephen and the Incarnation Church in Washington by the Rt. Rev. George W. Barrett, 67, former bishop of Rochester, N.Y., now living in Santa Barbara, Calif.

The Rev. Palmer described the forthcoming ordinations as "valid but irregular." The ordinations of 11 women July 29, 1974, in a Philadelphia ceremony later were ruled invalid by the church's House of Bishops.

"Nothing in Episcopal Church canon law prohibits ordination of women to the priesthood," the women said in their letter to the bishops. "Yet our diocesan bishops refuse to ordain us priests despite months of effort by us and by many in our dioceses to influence them to proceed." cited by a majority vote.

The church's bishops have agreed to withhold ordination from women until the church's General Convention meeting in 1976 can vote on the matter.

Pirates, Reds end in standoff

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Pittsburgh Pirates and the Cincinnati Reds, possible foes in the National League playoffs, have ended the regular season in a standoff.

The Pirates defeated the Reds 5-1 here Sunday as Jerry Reuss posted his 11th straight home victory with the help of a homer and a triple by Al Oliver.

Sunday's loss was the Reds' third in four weekend games here, but they beat the Pirates four straight a week ago in Cincinnati.

AUTOGRAPH TIME — Former Ohio State and pro grid star Rex Kern signs autographs during Sunday's free Pony League Football clinic at the Washington Middle School. Kern was on hand at the clinic to discuss equipment and techniques for Pony League age gridders. The former all-American quarterback retired from pro football this year because of an ailing back. He had been a starter in the Buffalo Bills' defensive secondary.

Each team finished the regular season series with six victories, and each side was 4-2 at home.

"The Pirates have a good team," said third baseman Pete Rose of the Reds, runaway leaders in the National League West.

"But we have a better one, and we'd like to prove it in the playoffs," Rose added.

Sunday's victory was the Pirates' fifth in six home games after returning from a dismal 2-12 road trip.

"On that road trip, we just weren't hitting, and the only way we can win is to hit consistently," said Pirate Coach Don Leppert.

The Pirates lead the National League East by three games over second-place St. Louis and 3½ games over Philadelphia, which fell into third by losing a doubleheader Sunday in San Diego.

The Pirates were out 9-5 Sunday, but crucial hits were provided by Oliver and Rennie Stennett.

On Saturday, it was Stennett whose two-out error opened the way for seven unearned runs that helped Cincinnati defeat Pittsburgh 12-7 on national television.

On Sunday, Stennett led off the Pirates first with a single and scored on a triple by Oliver, who then scored on a sacrifice fly by Willie Stargell.

The sacrifice fly marked Stargell's return to the Pirate lineup after a 12-game absence due to a fractured rib.

In the third inning, Stennett singled and scored when Oliver hit his 15th homer of the season. The belt to left-center came off losing pitcher Gary Nolan.

Richie Zisk opened the Pirate seventh with a double off Pedro Borbon. Then Zisk moved to third on a fly ball and scored on a squeeze bunt by Duffy Dyer.

Reuss, 14-9 overall, lost to the Expos in Pittsburgh on April 12, but he's won 11 in a row at home since then.

"We always seem to play better at home. It's just one of those things," he said.

The lone Cincinnati run came in the first inning when Joe Morgan singled, took third on a single by Rose and scored on a sacrifice fly by Johnny Bench.

While Ed Halicki was throwing zeroes at the New York Mets in San Francisco, the Dodgers were coming up empty in Los Angeles.

Not that they didn't score, hit or steal bases. But while Halicki was the reason the Mets lost a 6-0 no-hitter Sunday, the Dodgers had themselves to blame for a 5-3, 14-inning loss to Montreal.

Virtually everything that could have gone wrong went that way for Los Angeles, which wasted 11 innings of four-hit pitching by Don Sutton; had an apparent winning run nullified when an illegal Dodgers bat was discovered, and saw the winning Expos run score on a wild pitch by Mike Marshall.

The Mets, at least, were overpowered by a pitcher who permitted only four batted balls to reach the outfield; one who missed the strike zone only 35 times in 122 pitches. Four batted balls to the Los Angeles infield turned into errors — two by Dave Lopes and two by Phil Russell — and then there was Marshall's toss away from the strike zone and away from catcher Steve Yeager.

It was the classic contrast of perfection and bombast at two major league parks in the same state. Halicki, once a Met fan, owned them Sunday — just as mistakes owned the Dodgers.

Elsewhere in the NL, it was Houston 8, Chicago 4; St. Louis 6, Atlanta 2 and Pittsburgh 5, Cincinnati 1 while San Diego swept Philadelphia 7-2 and 7-6 in 12 innings.

Cardinals 6, Braves 2
"Speed is the name of the game, no matter what you're doing," said St. Louis Manager Red Schoendienst after Lou Brock stole the 800th and 801st bases of his career and Willie Davis got out of a first-inning rundown to help the Cardinals roll over the Atlanta Braves.

Padres 7-7, Phillies 2-6
Randy Jones picked up 17th victory with an eight-hitter in the opener before Bobby Tolan's 12th-inning single completed the sweep for the Padres.

Variety of offenses probed

An attempted burglary, four incidents of vandalism, two larcenies, an attempted suicide and a dog bite were reported by Washington C.H. police today. The Fayette County Sheriff's Department reported two incidents of vandalism, a larceny, a drug overdose and a personal illness.

A burglar locked David and Beverly Loudner out of their 811 McLean St. residence at 12:30 a.m. Sunday when the couple, accompanied by

Washington C.H. Police Ptl. Mike Stritenberger, went outside the house to investigate noises they had heard. Police reported when the Loudners turned to re-enter their house, the front screen door was latched. They went around to the rear of the residence and found the rear door, the patio door and the garage door open. These had been locked before the incident and are believed by police to have been the escape route taken by the burglar.

Investigation is continuing and police reported damage to the patio screen.

A Washington C.H. man was admitted to Fayette Memorial Hospital for observation after having his stomach pumped. City police reported the man was found in his bed after taking several tranquilizers and aspirin in a suicide attempt due to despondency over domestic problems.

An eight-track player belonging to Billy J. Penwell Jr., was stolen from his car while the vehicle was parked in front of his 742 Washington Ave. residence at 2 a.m. Sunday. Police reported the wing window forced to allow entry.

A rock was thrown through a window at the Guy Underwood residence, 1122 E. Temple St., sometime Saturday police reported.

A window valued at $15 was broken by a rock at Belle Aire Elementary School, 1120 High St., sometime over the weekend, police reported.

Two windows valued at $50 were broken by rocks at Rose Avenue Elementary School over the weekend. Police Ptl. Tony Wilson discovered the damage.

A plate glass window measuring five feet by six feet was broken by a rock at Great Oaks Construction Co., 221 Oakland Ave., sometime between 5 p.m. Friday and 7:30 a.m. Saturday. Police reported the rock also shattered a glass desk top.

Two $20 bills concealed in a cosmetic case were stolen from Martha J. Shaw, 224 1/2 S. Fayette St., at 11:45 p.m. Friday. Police believe the theft to have occurred at the Dublin Bar on Court Street.

Sue A. Rohde, 643 Willabar Dr., was bitten on the right thigh by a dog at 9:15 p.m. Sunday while in her backyard. She was treated and released at Fayette Memorial Hospital.

A wallet containing $140 belonging to Leland R. Wilson, Golden, Col., was stolen along with the pair of pants it was in while Wilson was showering at 10:30 a.m. at Garner's Union 76 Truck Stop, I-71 and U.S. 35. Fayette County Sheriff's deputies are investigating the theft.

A truck belonging to Hugh P. Morarity, Bloomington-New Holland Road, was broken into sometime between 12 a.m. and 8 a.m. Friday, while parked at Union Stockyards on Ohio 41-S. A magnetic ashtray, four lightbulbs, five pop bottles, a set of points and a condenser were stolen. Sheriff's deputies reported the motive for the theft was probably a citizens band radio. Morarity removed from the truck.

Julian Odegaard, Mason, was found by Sheriff's Deputy David Souther lying on his back complaining of back, neck and arm pain plus dizziness at 1:50 a.m. Sunday on the Ohio 41-N entrance ramp onto I-71. Odegaard, a driver for Consolidated Freight, Cincinnati, was taken to Fayette Memorial Hospital. His condition is not known at this time.

A paper box bracket and a mail box holder were damaged between 2 a.m. and 9 a.m. Sunday at the Raymond J. Rodgers Jr., residence, 3602 Worthington Rd., sheriff's deputies reported.

Three juveniles, ages 9, 9 and 8, were found breaking out the windows of a 1960 Cadillac parked at the Armbrust septic tank building, 401 Albin Ave., at 7:30 p.m. Sunday. Sheriff's deputies did not release the names or addresses of the children or state whether or not they were charged.

A 63-year-old Mount Sterling woman took an overdose of pills at 5 p.m. Friday. Sheriff's deputies reported the woman treated and released at Fayette Memorial Hospital.

A Washington C.H. police officer was assaulted while sitting in his cruiser at the corner of Peabody Avenue and Pearl Street at 12:08 a.m. Monday.

Police Chief Rodman Scott explained Ptl. Larry Mongold, who was accompanied at the time by police jailer-dispatcher Steve Jennings, was observing the area for suspects believed to be involved with the larceny of a lawnmower belonging to Jack Ferguson, 423 Earl St. Chief Scott stated a car pulled next to the cruiser, slammed on its brakes and then the driver exited and rapidly approached the police cruiser. Ptl. Mongold rolled down the window to ask the man, Albert A. Hodge, 26, of 907 Forest St., what the trouble was and Hodge reportedly struck Ptl. Mongold in the face with his fist. Ptl. Mongold was able to fight Hodge off, exit the cruiser and subdue Hodge who was arrested with assaulting a police officer and incarcerated.

Hodge is presently free on $1,000 bond and Ptl. Mongold was treated for abrasions of the right eye and right hand and neck.

Chief Scott added Ferguson's stolen lawnmower was recovered alone in the vicinity of Earl Avenue.

Seek overturn of Gandhi acts

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Lawyers for opponents of Prime Minister Indira Gandhi, arguing that the future of democracy in India is at stake, asked the Supreme Court on Monday to overturn a constitutional amendment nullifying her conviction of corrupt electoral practices.

The outcome of the hearing could have a far-reaching impact not only on Mrs. Gandhi's political future but also on the relationship between the Indian judiciary and Parliament and on the constitution itself.

Hospital deaths eyed

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — Officials at a Veterans Administration Hospital where eight patients died of respiratory arrest in a three-week period say they cannot rule out murder after a week of investigation.

FBI agents have joined the probe, along with a VA investigatory medical team.

In a statement issued Sunday, the hospital said there was a "critical suspicion" that the cause of the respiratory arrests was injection of a muscle relaxant that could have paralyzed a patient's breathing. But it added that it had not yet been determined if any such injections caused the deaths.

Nearly 50 of the hospital's patients stopped breathing at one time or another since July 1.

Development set at Coney Island

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — Cincinnati's abandoned Coney Island amusement park is beginning to bloom once more thanks to imminent construction of an interstate highway.

"We consider it a very great asset," said Charles S. Mechem Jr., chairman of the board of Taft Broadcasting Inc. The firm bought, operated and closed the long-time facility on the Ohio River four years ago after opening the huge Kings Island Amusement Park near Kings Mills, Ohio.

"We're very mindful of the position it holds in the minds of Cincinnati and people from all over Southern Ohio."

Coney, famed for its Moonlight Gardens, Shooting Star and picnic grounds attracted an estimated 50 million visitors during its 86-year history.

Mechem said Taft has decided not to sell the property adjacent to River Downs Race Course. He said the firm plans now to develop the 140 acres for recreational purposes.

Mechem said there were two reasons Taft delayed action on Coney: its preoccupation with Kings Island and the uncertain status of Interstate 275.

Kings Island is now a success and the final link of the beltway was approved recently for construction, including the bridge over the Ohio River.

"We're about to make it a priority in our planning," Mechem said. "We're putting our toes in the water and taking one step at a time."

The huge Sunlite Pool has remained open. Tennis Courts were constructed and the recent Western Tennis Championships were held at Coney.

Encouraged by public response, the firm now plans to "clean up the picnic facility and make it available for old fashioned picnics," Mechem said. He noted that ethnic and civic groups held large get togethers by the river there in the past.

Beyond that, nothing is certain. The possibility of flooding rules out a year-round facility and Taft would not erect anything competitive to Kings Island.

"We've had a stack of suggestions and we are not lacking for ideas," said Mechem. "But we don't want to commit ourselves completely until the highway is done," in about 1979.

Outlook good for Mideast pact

ALEXANDRIA, Egypt (AP) — Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger flew back to Egypt today on his diplomatic shuttle amid high hopes for a new Sinai pact.

Kissinger went into session with President Anwar Sadat at his seaside summer residence at Mamoura, near Alexandria. Foreign Minister Ismail Fahmy and Vice President Hissi Mubarak also attended the meeting.

Prospects for an Israeli-Egyptian pact were brightened by an Israeli report that Egypt had agreed to another key point.

Foreign Minister Yigal Allon announced that Egypt had agreed to let Israel station its men in an electronic warning post on the western slope of the Gidi mountain pass, one of the two Sinai Desert gateways which Israel would return to the Egyptians. This would be located in the territory being returned to Egypt.

The post, at Umm Khashiba, would enable Israel to monitor Egyptian military moves and has been a key Israeli condition for relinquishing the Gidi and Mitla passes.

Allon said Egypt could have a corresponding surveillance post on the Israeli side of the Gidi pass to monitor Israeli military movements.

Kissinger was jovial and confident as he talked to newsmen late Sunday after five hours of negotiating with Israeli leaders.

"We are continuing to make progress and have not encountered any unexpected difficulties," he said. "On most major items agreement is close." But he added: "You can run into difficulties, and I don't want to make a final judgment."

Allon said "a great deal of agreement has been reached" between Israel and the United States.

Ismail Fahmy, Egypt's foreign minister, met twice with U.S. Ambassador Hermann Eilts to review reports Kissinger sent from Israel. Presidential spokesman Tahseen Bashir said the Egyptian government considered the negotiations "fluid and promising."

An Israeli foreign ministry spokesman said Kissinger would have to shuttle at least twice more between Israel and Egypt before he could conclude a pact. This would take him at least until Wednesday.

Among the problems still to be cleared up were:

—Israel's demand that U.S.

technicians help man six additional surveillance posts it wants set up in the Gidi and Mitla passes. "We are making progress in that direction," Kissinger said. But he also told the Israelis the U.S. Congress would have to authorize this use of American personnel.

—The line to which Israel will withdraw, and the distance that Egyptian forces will be able to advance after the pullback. Kissinger said "differences are narrowing" on that point.

—The wording of the numerous clauses in the proposed agreement. Israel wants exact language that will leave no room for later "misunderstandings."

—Future American peace moves, chiefly on the Syrian front.

Under new legislation

Salary hike scheduled for Judge Winegardner

By ED SUMMERS

Part-time municipal court judges, including Washington C.H. Municipal Court Judge Reed M. Winegardner, are scheduled for a salary increase due to legislation recently signed into law by Ohio Gov. James A. Rhodes.

Judge Winegardner will receive approximately a $5,000 raise over his presently yearly salary of $10,000. However, Washington C.H. city auditor Jack Stackhouse said it would probably take a while for the judge to receive his raise.

Stackhouse said Washington C.H.

City Council must now enact an ordinance to raise the salary before he can pay out any increase.

The new salary scale calls for part-time judges to receive $11,000 per year plus an amount not to exceed $9,000 per year based on a rate of 18 cents for each person in the voting district. Figuring the population of Fayette County at 25,200, this would mean that the annual salary for the Washington C.H. municipal court judge would be approximately $15,400.

Under the present agreement, the city pays 60 per cent of the salary and the county 40 per cent. However, Stackhouse said he did not have the foggiest idea on how the new raise would be handled. "We will have to meet with the county officials to find out how we will pay out the increase."

Stackhouse pointed out that the raise would also affect the salaries paid to acting judges. They are presently paid $45 per day, but that pay is also based on the present $10,000 salary broken down on a day to day basis. "We are paying out between $2,000 and $3,000 per year now for others who sit on the bench when Judge Winegardner is not present," Stackhouse added.

Washington C.H. attorney Robert Simpson and former Fayette County Common Pleas Court Judge John P. Case, both candidates for the Municipal Court bench in November, have been holding most of the court sessions recently.

The 75-year-old Judge Winegardner holds court one day per week. He will retire when his term expires Jan. 1.

Ford also attacks regulations

Business tax breaks urged by President

CHICAGO (AP) — Declaring America's economic machine is not running at top speed, President Ford today called for tax incentives for industry and an end to the "quicksand" of federal business regulation.

Ford said U.S. industry is starving for capital to expand but is strangled by inflation, restrictive tax laws and government red tape.

"Our financial ability to increase production is declining," the President said in remarks prepared for the convention of the American Hardware Manufacturers Assn. "This decline is curtailing needed growth in jobs and income and undermining our ability to compete internationally."

He said his administration policies, if adopted by Congress, would lead to "increased jobs, income and full recovery."

Ford noted that despite a high unemployment rate, 85 million Americans are at work. He said the challenge is to create 14 million new jobs by 1980 "to meet the needs of our expanding population."

The President said that just before Congress recessed for August he proposed to stimulate capital investment through tax incentives. Those proposals included an increased investment tax credit, tax exemptions on preferred stock dividends and an end to "double taxation on dividends — in which both the corporation and stockholder are taxed."

Ford continued: "As expected, these proposals have raised an outcry from some members of Congress ... but the Congress has come up with no alternatives. We must do something about expanding our sources of capital to create jobs — and we must do it now."

He said some experts estimate that total investment requirements could reach as high as $4 trillion in the next few years.

In his strongest statement yet about what he calls excessive government regulation, Ford told the manufacturers "my object is to get the federal government as far out of your business, out of your lives, out of your pocket and out of your hair — as I can."

"Government regulations and restrictions now cost consumers billions of dollars each year," he said.

Bank deposit stolen

Lone gunman robs local restaurant

A lone gunman staged an armed robbery at the Blue Drummer Steak House, 1156 Columbus Ave., late Saturday, according to Washington C.H. police officers.

Washington C.H. Police Chief Rodman Scott said Joseph Lutz, 3450 U.S. 22-E, manager of the Blue Drummer Steak House, was held up at 11:45 p.m. Saturday by a male Negro subject.

According to police reports, an undetermined amount of money was taken.

Investigating officers said the subject approached Lutz as he was walking to his car parked in the parking lot near Blackstone Street. Police said the unidentified man told Lutz he had seen children tampering with the auto. He then brandished a handgun and asked Lutz for the bank deposit bag containing the evening's receipts.

After handing over the deposit bag, Lutz was led to a nearby property

"One of the goals I have set for myself as President is to cut big government down to size," he said. "I want to put an end to the mountain of paperwork and the quicksand of regulation which big government makes every American businessman cope with."

The President also said that, as part of his over-all program, "We must maintain an antitrust policy which validates our commitment to competitive markets."

Ford stopped here on his way back to Washington from a two-week western vacation.

behind 1137 E. Temple Street where he was forced by the gunman to lay on his stomach. The robber then threatened Lutz.

Police officers reported when the gunman paused to check inside the bank deposit bag, Lutz was able to obtain a better look at the man. When he raised up, the gunman sprayed Lutz with some type of chemical mace or tear gas, officers stated.

After spraying Lutz with the chemical substance, the robber fled the scene.

Police officers described the gunman as being about six feet, one inch in height, in his early to mid-20s and weighing approximately 195 pounds.

The robber was clad in a green army-type jacket and dark pants and had a bad complexion.

The restaurant manager was treated and released at Fayette Memorial Hospital for burns to his eyes.

Activities continue at Ohio State Fair

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio State Fair drew nearly a half-million visitors over the weekend, but was still off the pace set for the opening four days in 1974.

Fair officials said 244,513 attended the fair Sunday and 240,563 Saturday. Overall attendance this year is 815,098. It totaled 833,756 for the first four days of last year.

A hay loader, a self-raking reaper, a seed cleaner and an onion planter are among 1900s farm equipment on display at the turn of the century fair recreated by the Ohio Historical Center at the 1975 Ohio State Fair.

The "fair within a fair" gives fairgoers a glimpse at past expositions and a breather from the hustle and bustle of the modern fair.

Other features of the old-time exposition include a display of crafts by gunsmiths, tinsmiths and weavers in tents on the village grounds.

The village is open from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. daily throughout the fair and is accessible by a shuttlebus from the main grounds.

Longtime fairgoers might remember the flipper-dinger—a toy which consists of a ball supported on a column of air by blowing through a pipe. It's available in 1975 or 1900 style at this year's fair.

Concessionaires are selling a plastic version with a foam ball called a "dusie." The original flipper-dinger with a cornball and wooden pipe is available at the turn of the century fair.

The Ohio Commission on Aging was to present prominent senior citizen awards today to Mr. and Mrs. Hartford Steele, New Concord; Mrs. Mary Jackson, Flushing; P. Meek Keyser, Shadyside, and Harry Sears, Zanesville.

Paul Anka will entertain in the grandstand at 4:30 p.m. and 8:30 p.m. today. Pat Boone and his family will present a choreographed show in the grandstand Tuesday.

Match Hill, third place finisher in the Arden Down Stake at the Meadows in Pennsylvania, was rated as the early favorite in today's $24,350 Ohio State Trot Monday. Eleven freshman trotters will compete in two heats of one mile each.

Match Hill's stiffest competition was expected from Solo Hill. The twoscolts have met three previous times, with Match Hill victorious in all but one.

For Fayette County's Rusty Coe

Second championship 'fantastic'

COLUMBUS — To win the grand championship in the barrow show at the Ohio State Fair is great, but to win two years in succession is fantastic, says 15-year-old Rusty Coe, exhibitor of the 240-pound crossbred barrow.

Coe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Coe, Rt. 1, Jeffersonville, took the grand champion honors with a Chester White and Hampshire crossbred raised on the Coe farm.

The grand champion crossbred barrow was to be sold at 3 p.m. today in the fair's sale of champions.

Last year Coe sold the grand champion market barrow at the Ohio State Fair for a total of $26 per pound ($5,720) to Bob Evans Farms.

In addition to his champion crossbred, Coe showed the champion Chester White barrow and the reserve champion Duroc barrow. He also placed second in the junior showmanship competition.

He captured a number of lesser placings that would in themselves be an accomplishment for a young hog breeder. Coe took first place in the lightweight Duroc barrows, fourth place in the heavyweight crossbred barrows, seventh place in the lightweight crossbred, third place in the middleweight Chester White barrows, and first place in the lightweight Chester Whites.

Coe, a sophomore at Miami Trace High School, is the owner of several head of swine. He is a member of the Future Farmers of America chapter at Miami Trace High School.

The reserve champion barrow, a 240-pound purebred Duroc barrow, was shown by Joe Ehman, 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Ehman, Rt. 2, Orient.

Other breed champions were:

Berkshire — champion, Roger Snyder, Rt. 2, Leesburg; reserve, Ken Hempleman, Rt. 2, Carroll. Chester White — champion, Karen Bailey, Rt. 3, Eaton; reserve, Steve Worley, Rt. 5, London; Duroc — champion, Joe Ehman, Rt. 2, Orient; reserve, Rusty Coe, Rt. 1, Jeffersonville; Hampshire champion, Kevin Igo, Xenia; reserve, John Bratton, Mowrystown; Landrace — champion, Rick Miller, Rt. 2, Elida; reserve, Rick Miller; Poland China — champion, Jeff Wippel, Rt. 1, Anna; reserve, Martin Black, West Milton; Yorkshire — champion, Mark Runyan, Urbana; reserve, Tom Jackson, Powell; Crossbred — champion, Rusty Coe, Jeffersonville; reserve, Mark Underwood, Rt. 1, Alger.

Highway crashes claim lives of 11

By The Associated Press

At least 11 persons died on Ohio roads in weekend traffic accidents, the Ohio Highway Patrol reported today.

Three of the victims were pedestrians and two were motorcyclists. The 11 deaths compare with 19 last weekend.

The patrol keeps its weekend tally from 6 p.m. Friday until midnight Sunday.

The dead:

Trial slated for Greenfield man today on murder charge

HILLSBORO — Arthur (Sonny) Jenkins, 24, of Greenfield, was scheduled to go on trial today on a charge of murder in Highland County Common Pleas Court.

Jenkins is one of two men implicated in the April 17 beating death of James (Bob) Coe, 79, who resided in the Higginsville community near Greenfield.

If convicted of the murder charge, Jenkins could be sentenced to 15 years to life in prison. He would also be subject to a fine of as much as $15,000.

The other man charged with murder, Donald Pryor, 35, of Greenfield, will go on trial September 8. He is also charged with obstruction of justice and will be tried on that charge at a later date.

Jenkins and Pryor were indicted secretly by a Highland County grand jury eight days after Coe's death in the emergency room of Greenfield Municipal Hospital.

Jenkins is being held in Highland County jail in lieu of $50,000 bond. He is represented by two court-appointed attorneys, Ronald Swonger of Hillsboro and John B. House of Georgetown.

The state has issued subpoenas to 15 witnesses. The defense has summoned seven witnesses.

Ohio reformatory used for movie

MANSFIELD, Ohio (AP) — A pair of unlikely — and unlucky — "crooks" will rendezvous at the medium-security Ohio State Reformatory at Mansfield this week.

Movie stars James Caan and Elliott Gould are starring in the film "Harry and Walter Go to New York." The reformatory is the setting for on-location filming of the spoof about the pair of crooks in New England in 1892.

Harry and Walter are aspiring vaudevillians who turn their talents to safecracking. Diane Keaton as a zealous social reformer provides some help, while English actor Michael Caine gets in the pair's way as a famous, flamboyant safecracker.

The reformatory, built in the 1890's, serves as the meeting place of the film's major characters in the original comedy screenplay by Robert Kaufman and John Byrum. A rock quarry outside of Columbus will also be used the following week for filming a scene involving inmates mining.

The pros will be joined by 65 inmates at the prison and 250 area residents hired as extras by Columbia Pictures.

Potential actors lined up about 7 a.m. one day last week when Columbia began to interview for extras. Columbia had said it wanted to hire only those persons who were unemployed, so they hired at the local employment office.

More than enough amateurs showed up for their chance to be on the wide screen and pick up a few bucks at the same time.

"I don't want to be a real famous dude or anything," said Martin Meeker of Mansfield, one of those on line. "But I wouldn't mind getting in a closeup scene and saying a few words."

George Palmer, a New York City resident who was laid off three months ago by a law firm on Wall Street and now lives in the area, said, "I will take any part as long as it means work and money."

Open air service draws over 300 persons

A total of 330 persons attended Sunday night's open air services at Miami Trace Stadium.

This was the fourth of this year's series of open air services sponsored by the Churches of Christ and Christian Churches of Fayette County. The fourth service was designated as youth night. Special music was provided by the team choir of the South Side Church of Christ and by the Sonshine Company of the First Christian Church.

The message of the evening was delivered by Richard Crabtree, minister of the Jeffersonville Church of Christ. His message title took the form of the question, "Who is first in your life?" Rev. Crabtree declared, the Bible says, "in all things Christ must have the pre-eminence." He also said, "the life that you live shows who has first place in your life."

Special guest of the evening was Edwin Nestor, superintendent of the Washington C.H. School District. Nestor pointed out the fact that there are three levels of human conduct. These levels are legal, moral and Christian. The apex of which is Christian conduct. He remarked, "Our country cannot expect to gain much more materially until we catch up spiritually."

Next Sunday will be the final week of this years open air services. The speaker for the evening will be Marshall Leggett, minister of the Broadway Christian Church of Lexington, Ky. The Broadway Christian Church is one of the oldest Christian Churches in America. The restoration movement had its beginning not far from Lexington, Ky. Rev. Leggett will speak on the restoration movement and the part it has played in the growth of our country. Special music for next week's services will be provided by the adult choir of the First Christian Church. The services begin at 7:30 p.m. each Sunday evening.

ANOTHER WIN — Local biking enthusiast Jim Galloway, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Galloway, 510 Damon Drive, registered another victory in his favorite sport recently when he captured the seven-mile Derby Day bike race in Leesburg. Galloway (left) averaged better than 25 miles per hour during the race and completed the course in 16 minutes and 31 seconds. Second place in the event was captured by Greg Ervin. The race was sponsored by the Yankee Peddler Bicycle Shop, Greenfield, for experienced bikers ages 15 to 27.

DIRECT DEPOSIT SOCIAL SECURITY CHECKS

WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT
DIRECT DEPOSIT OF SOCIAL SECURITY CHECKS

1 Why is there so much interest today in the direct deposit of social security checks?

The Treasury Department has initiated a program to encourage the recipients of all recurring Federal payments to deposit these directly into a financial institution. Under this plan, an individual can have his check sent directly to his financial institution for deposit.

2 How will I benefit from direct deposit of my social security check?

It saves a special trip to the bank just to deposit your check. It eliminates worry about the check being lost or stolen in the mail. And, any time you are away from home or cannot come to the bank, your check is automatically deposited for you.

3 Can I have it deposited to my savings account as well as my checking account?

If you want a portion to go into the savings each month, ask your bank about an automatic transfer of a specified amount each month from checking into savings. By law your Social Security check must be directed to one specific account, either checking or savings.

4 How do I sign up for this service?

Simply complete the government form (SF1199) available at any bank. Personnel at your commercial bank will be glad to help you complete the form.

5 How do I get the information needed to complete the forms?

All the Social Security information you will need is on your monthly check or in your initial awards letter from Social Security. If you need any assistance or have any questions, your bank will be glad to assist you.

6 Do I send the form directly to social security?

No, you should complete the top half of the form only and take it or mail it to your bank. They will complete the form, sending one copy to you and one to Social Security.

7 After I sign up, when will the bank start receiving my check?

It should take about a month for the form to be processed. At the start of the program, it could take slightly longer.

8 What about terminating the direct deposit program?

Simply contact the Social Security office and request that they start sending the checks directly to you. Also notify your bank.

9 Is there any charge for this service?

No, it is a completely free service of your local bank.

10 What if the amount of my check changes?

The correct amount of your check will be deposited each month.

11 I get payments from both the social security and supplemental income. Do I have to fill out two forms?

Yes, a separate form is necessary for each check you receive.

12 My spouse and I receive a check jointly. Can we use direct deposit?

Yes, just so the account in which it is deposited is in both your names.

Jeff Methodist Church setting for wedding

Miss Debbie Bowsher, daughter of Mrs. Joseph Fisher of Jeffersonville, and Lawrence Bowsher of Columbus, exchanged marriage vows with Christopher Humphreys, son of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Humphreys, 1020 Millwood Ave., Aug. 16 in the Jeffersonville United Methodist Church. The Rev. Eugene Griffith performed the double ring ceremony at 7:30 p.m.

Organist for the ceremony was Mrs. Kenneth Spahr of Jeffersonville and soloist Miss Connie Hughes of Washington C.H. Pink roses adorned the altar.

The bride wore an ivory gown with fitted waist trimmed with lace bib. Her full skirt went into a long train. Matching lace was all around the hemline of the gown and the train and bottom of the puffed sleeves. Her elbow-length veil of illusion was caught to a head-band of lace, and she carried six long-stemmed pink roses.

The four attendants, Mrs. Philip Pitstick of Xenia, Miss Regie Roush and Miss Betsy Hartman of Jeffersonville, wore shades of pink, their dresses long double knit with long sleeves trimmed in ivory lace and big garden hats all in pink. They each carried a single rose with greenery. Mrs. Eddie Strausbaugh of New Holland was matron of honor, and was gowned like the other attendants.

Eric Krieger of Jeffersonville served as best man. Matthew and Danny Humphreys, brothers of the groom, and Harvey Bryan of Jeffersonville seated the wedding guests.

Fellowship Hall of the church was the setting for the reception. The three-tiered wedding cake in ivory was topped by bride and groom figurines. Hostesses for the reception were Miss Toni McDonald and Miss Donna Swigert, both of Jeffersonville, and Miss Connie Hughes of Washington C.H.

Both are graduates of Miami Trace High School.

Miss Dumford guest of honor at luncheon

Miss Terry Dumford, bride-elect of Steve Cannon, was guest of honor Saturday at a noon luncheon held at the Washington County Club. The couple will be married Sept. 7 in Grace United Methodist Church.

Hostesses for the luncheon and shower were Mrs. Robert Harris, Mrs. Edmond Woodmansee, Mrs. Richard Maughmer and Mrs. David Albert. Yellow flowers with greenery centered the luncheon table.

Guests invited were Mrs. Laurence Dumford and Mrs. Robert L. Cannon, mothers of the couple, Miss Melody Mustain, Mrs. David Wackman, Miss Barbara Heinz, Mrs. John Waddell, Miss Jonelle Shoemaker, Mrs. Ted Craig, Mrs. Charles Schneider, Mrs. Paul V. Johnson, Mrs. Maurice Hopkins, Mrs. Richard Arnott, Mrs. Max Lawrence, Mrs. Jack Hagerty, Mrs. Preston Bentley, Mrs. LaVerne Haugen, Mrs. Charles Mustine, Mrs. Tom Palmaccio, Mrs. Paul Thornhill, Mrs. Paul Cummings, Mrs. Robert McArthur.

Also Mrs. Kenneth Smith, Mrs. James Dobbins, Miss Debbie Hyer, Mrs. Mark Sheridan, Miss Tricia Dumford, Miss Wendy Woodmansee, Mrs. Mark Ruley, Mrs. Robert Cannon, Mrs. Phil Lowers, Mrs. Lawrence Pabst, Mrs. Steve Foreman, Mrs. Terry McClaskie, Mrs. Lawrence Finley, Miss Diane Holland, Mrs. Mike Flynn, Miss Laurie Delong, Mrs. Glenn Hamilton, Miss Mary Hamilton, Miss Debbie Lawrence, Mrs. Keith Osborn, Miss Carol Hedrick and Miss Linda Whitington.

So she's casting aside the traditional lace and pearl confections that Grandma wore for natural headpieces plucked fresh from the garden. Instead of yards of tulle or long lace mantillas, she opts for single daisies or tiny rosebuds scattered throughout her long tresses.

Senior Citizen b'day party at SC Center

The Senior Citizens of 723 Delaware St., met Friday for their regular bi-monthly covered-dish luncheon and program honoring those who had birthdays in July and August. The plans for the day were made by Miss Mary Frances Snider, SC director, with the assistance of those who had birthdays in May and June.

Special tables were arranged for the honored members which were centered with flowers. Favors were given to them. The invocation was given by the Rev. Henry Simmons.

Among the guests present were Randy Thomas and his nephew, Carl Parker, Mrs. Sarah Brown, Mrs. Marcia Davis and Mrs. Walter Rodgers and daughter, Angela. Mrs. Bessie H. Maley was welcomed as a new member.

Mrs. David told of her work in Fayette County as a co-ordinator and reference person for the work known as Help-Anonymous.

Mrs. Art Haugen and Mr. Ben Englen represented the Senior Citizens at the Bi-Centennial committee meeting recently. Mrs. Haugen asked members to offer suggestions as to the type of activity they thought Senior Citizens should have for the Bi-Centennial celebration.

Miss Snider announced that a bus load of members will be attending the Ohio State Fair on Tuesday.

A hilarious style show called "Now and Then" was planned by Mrs. Russell Giebelhouse. Various articles of clothing were modeled showing the styles of the present in contrast with the styles of years gone by. Appropriate music, both vocal and instrumental, accompanied the parade of styles. Helping with the music were Mrs. Thomas, Floyd Dowler, Jesse Taylor, Ted Merritt, Emmitt Shaper, Mrs. Harry Fultz and the rhythm band of 20 members.

Those who modeled in the "Now and Then" style show were Mrs. Hazy Hidy, Mrs. Orville Waugh, Miss Angela Rogers, Mrs. Edgar Richardson, Mrs. Harry Fultz, Mrs. Helen M. Thornton, Mrs. Everett Riley, Miss Snider, Mrs. Edith Scott, Mrs. Arthur Grimm, Mrs. Floyd Baughn, Mrs. Roy Smith, Mrs. Frances Toops, Mrs. Ray Weiland and Mrs. Albert Hyer.

Mrs. Sarah Brown, deputy sheriff, told very interesting hints about how to protect oneself, one's family and property.

The program was closed with the rhythm band playing several numbers.

BAKED FISH FILLETS
Easy to make and good flavor.
1 package (12 ounces) frozen sole or flounder fillets, thawed
1-3rd cup real mayonnaise
1/4 cup grated Parmesan cheese
2 tablespoons fine dry bread crumbs
Line a very shallow baking pan with foil; grease foil. Place fillets in one layer in pan. Spread with mayonnaise; sprinkle with cheese, then with crumbs. Bake in preheated 375-degree oven until lightly browned and fish flakes easily and looks opaque when tested with a fork — 25 minutes. Makes 2 to 3 servings.

FRENCH TOMATO SAUCE
No fat is added.
1-pound can tomatoes
2 tablespoons tomato paste
4 sprigs parsley
1/8 teaspoon dried crushed thyme
1/2 bay leaf
1/4 cup coarsely chopped celery tops
1 clove garlic, unpeeled and halved
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/8 teaspoon pepper
In a 1-quart saucepan stir together the undrained tomatoes, tomato paste, parsley, thyme, bay leaf, celery tops and garlic. Bring to a boil; simmer, covered, for 30 minutes. Puree through food mill. Stir in salt and pepper. Reheat. Makes 1 cup.

Open house is planned for golden anniversary

"Open House" is planned from 2 to 4 p.m. Sunday (Aug. 31) honoring Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Dixon of 2906 Miami Trace Rd., the occasion being their golden wedding anniversary.

The observance will take place at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dixon, 2842 Miami Trace Rd. near Good Hope.

Mr. Dixon and the former Katherine Perry were married Sept. 2, 1925, in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Perry.

The couple has the one son, Charles, two grandchildren, Mrs. Gordon Boyer of Washington C.H., and Mrs. Edwin Newlan of Greenfield; and seven great-grandchildren.

Posy Garden Club plans Bi-Centennial celebration

Members of the Posy Garden club met with Mrs. Harry Thraikill early Wednesday for a buffet breakfast. Guests were seated on the screened porch overlooking a wooded valley where they enjoyed the many bird songs and could identify the birds at the feeders. Roll call was answered with favorite bird calls.

Mrs. Kenneth Campbell gave horticulture hints on gourds to grow for bird houses and showed one made of cedar.

Mrs. Carl Benner had an exhibit of bird feeders made by Smith Benner of Jackson. Mr. Benner, a senior citizen, has the interesting hobby of making martin houses and feeders.

Mrs. Ethel Wilson read a paper on "Gardens on the Wing." She said that birds are nature's bonus to the gardener; they help keep insects under control, their songs are a delight and they are a joy to watch. One can plant trees and shrubs with small fruits to attract birds, also remember they like water in a pool or bird bath.

Mrs. Thraikill made an arrangement entitled "Flight" from red dahlias driftwood and ivy. Members enjoyed her dahlia garden, which is now in full bloom. She cut feathery coxcomb for drying, to use in winter bouquets. She also pointed out her bluebird boxes and wren houses, also the method of keeping cats and squirrels from molesting birds at the feeders.

The club voted to cancel the applebutter making project because of lid scarcity.

Mrs. Jess Schlichter, president, reported the club had won ribbons for Sweepstakes, Best of Show, distinction, beauty, five firsts, one second and a third at the recent flower show at the Fayette County Fair.

Plans were completed for a Home Placement Flower Show entitled "Early Settlers from 1:30 until 7 p.m. Sept. 24, and will feature the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Schlichter on the Myers Rd. The house was built about 1830, by Major Samuel E. Myers, a retired War of 1812 officer.

Mrs. Fern Miller will demonstrate spinning with vegetable dyed wools and Mrs. Bess Seaman will demonstrate quilting. There will be a display of woven coverlets, baskets and quilts, also other antiques.

In keeping with the "Early Settlers" theme, apples and cider will be served in the backyard.

This is the club's contribution to the country's Bi-Centennial observance and will be open to the public.

Those enjoying the morning were Mrs. Bess Seaman, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Benner, Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. Lester Haines, Mrs. Jesse Schlichter, Mrs. W.B. Edwards and Mrs. Arthur Schlichter.

Postal service losing battle against mail foulups?

By HOWARD ANGLIONE
Associated Press Writer

Americans mail almost one billion letters a week. Millions of them reach their destinations later than they should, and some never arrive. Why? Like the girl in the nursery rhyme who was either very good or horrid, the combination of machinery and human beings at work handling the U.S. mail can mesh beautifully one minute to provide good service, then mess everything up the next.

Postal officials minimize the extent of delays, claiming that service is good and complaints are declining. But examples of foulups abound:

—A company in New York mails an envelope of paychecks to its Phoenix office for distribution to employees there. The envelope arrives eight days later.

—A young woman mails a bill payment to a local department store three days before the deadline for receipt. It arrives five days after the deadline, and she is charged interest because it was late.

—Two letters, mailed in the same box at the same time, reach neighboring destinations several days apart.

The Postal Service calculates that it provides "on time" delivery for 24 out of every 25 local letters and for 23 out of every 25 long-distance letters.

"On time" means the next day within metropolitan areas if a letter is picked up by 5 p.m., within two days if a letter is traveling 600 miles or less; and within three days if a domestic letter must travel more than 600 miles. Sunday is not counted as a "day."

There are reasons to question the accuracy of the Postal Service figures, but if they are accepted and applied to statistics showing that there is roughly a 50-50 split between metropolitan and long-distance mail, they point to late arrival each week for 20 million metropolitan letters and 40 million long-distance letters.

The sampling system the Postal Service uses to gauge delivery speed is unable to provide estimates on how many letters are lost.

From the time you put a letter in a mail box until it reaches its destination, it must cope with dozens of opportunities for delay.

Drivers assigned to collection routes have been known to miss pickups at certain boxes, a letter can get lost in the folds of a mail sack or other cracks and crevices along the way, bad weather can disrupt airplane and truck schedules, post offices may not have enough clerks on duty, and carriers can make mistakes.

But the number of delays caused by these problems are minuscule. Most often, the blame for delays — especially those of several days — can be traced to the letter-sorting process.

Any analysis of the sorting process quickly focuses on the machinery that is used, especially the large letter-sorting machines where man, machinery and the U.S. mail encounter notable success and disaster.

These machines, and the sorting clerks who operate them, handle roughly half of the letters mailed in the United States at least once — and often three or four times if a letter must be routed through several post offices.

Clerks sorting letters the old way — by hand, into a box of pigeonholes — also make mistakes, but postal officials acknowledge that the method involves fewer errors than the combination of men and machines. Officials add, however, that the hand method is slower and more expensive.

The typical letter-sorting machine — an LSM in postal jargon — is a rectangular metal box about four feet wide, taller than the walls of the average one-story house and almost twice as long.

Twelve clerks, sitting at desk-size consoles attached to the LSM, look at letters that are placed in front of them at the rate of about one per second by a little mechanical wrist with a suction cup hand. For each letter, a clerk types two or three numbers — usually part of the zip code — that the machine uses to route the envelope to one of the 277 aluminum sorting bins that honeycomb one side of the machine.

The problem is that some letters don't get to the right bins, either because the operator strikes a wrong key or because the machine makes a mistake. And some letters never get to any bin — they fall into the works and must be pulled out later, often in mutilated form. Sometimes it's possible to decipher the address, sometimes it isn't.

The government's General Accounting Office, reporting last summer on a check of LSM operations in three Southern post offices, said console operators have a "rigorous and tedious job."

GAO found that 30 per cent of the 141 operators it tested made errors 10 per cent of the time, and "only 18 per cent were within the 2 per cent error rate allowed for qualification" as an LSM operator. GAO blamed the machines themselves for errors 1.8 per cent of the time.

Apply the percentages to LSM volume, and you're quickly into the millions. Postal officials say 562 LSMs in operation nationwide sort an average of 25,000 letters per hour, eight hours per day.

Assume that man and machine have a total error rate of 5 per cent, and it works out to 702,500 mistakes per hour, or 5.62 million per day. That's still a fraction of total volume, but it's enough to cause a lot of problems. It's also expensive — GAO estimated that rehandling missorted mail cost $1,060 per day in one post office.

Postal officials say their first line of defense against mistakes is manned by clerks who empty the machine bins. The clerks riffle through the letters, culling out hundreds of missorted ones per hour. But mistakes still slip through the defense line.

An Associated Press reporter, who wondered how many mistakes are not caught, obtained permission to check the trays where letters are placed after they have been rifled by clerks.

Any letter not headed for the destination marked on the tray faces a needless journey, unless it is lucky enough to be caught in one of the spot checks postal officials say are made of rifling efficiency.

On visits to six post offices in five Eastern cities, the reporter selected at random trays containing letters not due to be looked at again until they reached post offices in the Midwest and West.

Out of 4,657 letters checked, 267 — or 5.7 per cent — would have gone astray for several days if they had not been spotted by the reporter. They included 128 letters that would normally have reached their destinations the next day.

Even if a letter reaches the correct LSM bin, however, it still faces sorting hazards that can cause long delays.

Every so often a rifling clerk takes a handful of envelopes from a bin and eliminates mistakes, but places the bundle in the wrong tray. That appeared to have been the reason for many of the errors in the tray of mail from Kansas City — missorted letters appeared in clusters, suggesting that a clerk had mistakenly put handfuls of letters for Missouri cities in the tray for New York mail.

Once a tray is filled, new hazards for misrouting appear. The letters travel in bags or in cardboard containers that postal workers say are occasionally mislabeled. And even if correctly labeled, it's possible for dock workers to load the bags on the wrong truck.

In its report on mail delays, the GAO concluded: "The Service has not been completely successful in meeting its first-class mail delivery standards."

Jewelry stolen from Alice Faye

NEW YORK (AP) — Actress Alice Faye was enjoying a late snack at an East Side pub when someone broke into her chauffeured limousine and carted off two cosmetic cases containing about 20 pieces of jewelry.

Miss Faye, who estimated her loss from the theft early Sunday at $25,000, said many of the stolen articles were gifts from her husband, bandleader Phil Harris.

She said she was away from the car with her press agent, Jewel Baxter, and the chauffeur for about 40 minutes.

Miss Faye, who grew up here, had just arrived in the city after an out-of-town engagement.

Non-person back as Chinese leader

TOKYO (AP) — Wang Pingnan, purged as vice foreign minister during China's cultural revolution, has been named president of the People's Association for Friendship with Foreign Countries.

The association was set up in 1954 to promote Peking's foreign policy.

Wang, 69, was politically "rehabilitated" to assume the post.

He lost his foreign ministry position in 1967 when opponents called him a traitor to the revolution. He had held the position since 1964.

The announcement of the new appointment, broadcast by Hsinhua, the Chinese news agency, was monitored here Sunday.

Hank Williams Jr. reported better

MISSOULA, Mont. (AP) — Hank Williams Jr., the country singer injured in a fall while hiking Aug. 9, is no longer under intensive care.

Williams, 26 and son of the late singing star, Hank Williams, was hurt while hiking near the Continental Divide.

After being moved to a private room at a hospital here, Williams was visited Friday by country and western star Johnny Cash and his wife, June Carter Cash.

Two women injured in rural collision

Two women were injured in a two-car accident at 2:40 p.m. Sunday on CCC Highway-E, eight-tenths of a mile north of Washington-Waterloo Road.

The Fayette County Sheriff's Department reported a car driven by Eleanor W. Skaggs, 60, Circleville, turned left into a private driveway at 3818 CCC Highway-E in front of an oncoming auto driven by Debra A. Krupla, 20, Bloomingburg. Ms. Krupla claimed injury from the mishap and Ms. Skaggs, who was cited for failure to yield right of way by deputies, showed visible signs of injury. It is not known whether or not the women were treated.

Sheriff's deputies investigated two additional weekend mishaps, one of which involved a stolen auto. Washington C.H. police reported five traffic mishaps over the weekend in which two citations were issued.

A car belonging to Norma J. Morrow, New Holland, was stolen from the Larry Hager residence on Dill Road around 2:30 a.m. Sunday. Sheriff's deputies recovered the auto after it had been involved in an accident at the intersection of Lewis and Dill roads at 3:30 a.m. Sunday. Deputies stated the auto was driven 171 feet off the left side of the roadway and back onto the roadway where it skidded around into the ditch, coming to rest on its left side. The Bureau of Criminal Investigation in London has been summoned to assist with the investigation.

A car driven by Linda M. Brown, 20, Leesburg, struck a deer which had run out in front of the car at 10:15 p.m. Sunday while Ms. Brown drove north on U.S. 62-S, two-tenths of a mile south of Rowe-Ging Road. Damage was moderate to the auto and deputies reported that after the animal was hit it ran off.

Cars driven by Michael A. Wilson, 26, of 1020 Broadway St. and Marjorie B. Bernard, 51, Sabina, collided on Court Street near the Fayette Street intersection at 5:30 p.m. Sunday. Police estimated moderate damage to both autos.

A motorcycle driven by Lisa J. Roberds, 17, of 924 Lakeview Ave., struck the rear of a car driven by Lowell Hammond, 67, Bloomingburg, on Delaware Street near the Market Street intersection at 4 p.m. Sunday. Police stated the cycle skidded on wet pavement.

A three-car collision on Court Street near the North Street intersection at 4 p.m. Sunday involved autos driven by David L. Hilderbrand, 18, of 1020 Rawlings St.; Scott E. Arehart, 16, Wilmington; and Tom Cook, 22, Greenfield. Police reported the Hilderbrand auto struck the rear of the Arehart auto causing it to hit the Cook car. Hilderbrand was charged by city police with failure to maintain an assured clear distance ahead.

A car driven by Janice M. Burnett, 23, of 1005 Millwood Ave., went out of control on wet pavement and struck a brick retaining wall at 424 E. Court St. Ms. Burnett was cited for no operator's license.

A car belonging to Elmer Smith Jr., 925 John St., was damaged when struck by a hit-skip driver in the municipal parking lot on S. Fayette Street Saturday night. Police are investigating.

Rhodesian meeting opens on black rule for nation

VICTORIA FALLS, Rhodesia (AP) — The Rhodesian constitutional talks between Prime Minister Ian Smith and black nationalist leaders opened on a bridge below the Victoria Falls today with Smith still adamantly opposed to black rule and the Africans still demanding it.

There was speculation of a breakthrough because Prime Minister John Vorster of South Africa and President Kenneth Kaunda of Zambia attended the opening session.

But Smith in a speech Saturday said his white-minority government has "no policy to hand our country over to any black majority government, and as far as I am concerned, we ever will have."

The Nairobi, Kenya, Daily Nation commented editorially that unless Smith was bluffing, he had doomed the talks to failure.

The black Rhodesian delegation was led by Bishop Abel Muzorewa, whose African National Council (ANC) is demanding immediate majority rule.

Smith said earlier that he might turn his back on the ANC and seek a political settlement with conservative black leaders amenable to continued white domination.

The opening meeting was held in a South African railway car parked on the Victoria Falls bridge over the Zambezi River, the border between Zambia and Rhodesia. It was the first time black and white Rhodesians have sat together to discuss the central issue in Rhodesian politics, the rule of the white minority over a black majority 22 times more numerous.

It was also the first public meeting of Vorster and Kaunda. They conferred for an hour together at Livingstone, on the Zambian side of the border, and then walked to the conference coach.

Muzorewa and the other ANC delegates also boarded the train from the Zambian side of the border while Smith came from the Rhodesian side.

The two Rhodesian sides also disagreed on the the future course of the talks.

Lockheed remains mum

WASHINGTON (AP) — A congressional panel is challenging Lockheed Aircraft Corp.'s assertion that business reasons prevent the company from disclosing the names of foreign persons and groups receiving more than $22 million in Lockheed payoffs.

Treasury Secretary William E. Simon and Lockheed chairman Daniel J. Haughton testify today before the Senate Banking Committee probing the payments that Lockheed acknowledges making since 1970.

Simon chairs a government board created to oversee a $250-million government loan-guarantee granted Lockheed in 1971 when the company was in precarious financial condition.

Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., chairman of the committee, said in announcing the hearings that Lockheed may have violated the terms of the loan agreement by making the payments.

The company has declined to say who received the money, claiming such disclosure "could have a serious adverse impact on several hundred million dollars of the company's present backlog and could result in a material adverse impact with respect to the company's future operations."

Lockheed, asserting the payments "are consistent with practices engaged in by numerous other companies abroad, including many of its competitors," defended the practice as "necessary in consummating certain foreign sales."

However, Proxmire has contended that "the public is entitled to know the full details of these payoffs, the names of the recipients, the countries and the items that are being sold through a system of bribery."

Lockheed now has about $1.6 billion worth of orders in some 30 foreign nations for its airplanes, chiefly the L1011 TriStar jet passenger plane and the C130 cargo plane. About 12 per cent of all its sales are to foreign governments.

Low pressure over south central Canada this morning with a cold front dropping from the low across Iowa was expected to push eastward toward Ohio Tuesday, reaching the northern part of the state by morning.

Temperatures were expected to reach the upper 80s and low 90s over Ohio again today. Thunderstorms were forecast again this afternoon, mainly in the northwest portion and will become likely over the state tonight as the front approaches.

Oil firm urges control spreadout

WASHINGTON (AP) — The chairman of Mobil Oil Corp. says oil price controls should end gradually, rather than expire abruptly next weekend, to avoid a "shock to America's fragile economic recovery."

Rawleigh Warner Jr., chairman of the third largest U.S. oil company, said "nobody really knows" what the total economic effect will be if controls end suddenly but it "could stimulate higher prices, higher wages and perhaps some loss of jobs."

Warner, in a letter to members of Congress, said a gradual end of price controls over several years "cushions the impact of higher prices on the consumer over a period of time." Warner thus became the first U.S. oil executive to oppose a sudden end to controls.

Mobil has both U.S. and foreign oil sources.

Warner also criticized proposals that would impose a windfall-profits tax on the oil companies if controls end suddenly. Such a tax could fail to achieve its objectives in the future because today's windfall profits "may become tomorrow's vital earnings," Warner said.

Price controls that place a $5.25-a-barrel ceiling on about 60 per cent of U.S.-produced oil automatically expire Aug. 31, allowing the price to climb to the unregulated world price of around $12 a barrel.

Congress has approved a sixmonth extension of the controls. President Ford has promised to veto that measure, and administration energy experts maintain the economic impact of decontrol will not be severe.

Federal Reserve Board Chairman Arthur Burns predicted Sunday that gasoline would increase by 2 cents to 2½ cents a gallon if oil price controls end suddenly. Ford removes his $2-a-barrel tariff on imported oil and there are windfall profits taxes on the oil companies.

Congress is scheduled to vote on whether to override the veto shortly after the lawmakers return from their August vacation on Sept. 3.

Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield, in a speech Sunday at Libby Dam, Mont., with Ford sharing the rostrum, said he hoped the President would not veto the extension.

Ford, in his formal remarks at the dedication of the $470-million Libby Dam, said this country is known for its ability to get people of different persuasions to sit down and try to work out problems.

He also declared the United States must act now to seek energy self-sufficiency. "We have delayed too long," the President said. "If we fail to get cracking on a solution, we will have to depend more and more on foreign sources of energy in the future."

Countians make marks at Ohio State Fair

Fayette Countians made their marks at the Ohio State Fair this weekend by bringing home several top ribbons.

Dan Schlichter, 10187 Prairie Rd.,

topped the open class market lamb show, and the Fayette County judging team finished second.

Both the champion and reserve champion in the open-class market lamb competition were entered by the Schlichter farm.

Susan Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Wilson, 530 Mayfair Dr., led the Fayette County judging team to its second place finish. Edged by the Marion County team's 1402 points, Fayette County's 1392-point total was good for second place. Miss Wilson chalked up 490 of a possible 550 points to finish second in the individual totals.

Rounding out the local team were Jeff Wilt and Mike Sollars, with Chris Garland serving as the alternate. Wilt and Sollars tied for 17th in the individual totals with 451 points each. Wilt is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alan Wilt, 3736 U.S. 35-S, and Sollars is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sollars, 2463

Bunker Hill-Glendon Rd.

The group judged three classes of beef cattle, three classes of hogs and two classes of sheep. They were also asked to explain the reasons for their point awards in several classes.

Several other Fayette County residents captured first-place ribbons. They included Marilyn Seifried, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Seifried, 1894 Flakes Ford Rd., who showed the first and fifth place middleweight Yorkshire barrows; Cindi Grover, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Grover, 2906 Parrott Station Rd., who had the first place Dorset pen of three the second and ninth place Dorset singles and the 11th place crossbred wether; Miss Wilson who in addition to judging entered the first, fifth, eighth and 12th place steers; and Belinda Melton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

Charles Melton, 6941 Eyman Rd., who had a first, two thirds and a 15th place in steer competition.

Alan Thompson won an "Outstanding of the Day" award for his advanced electricity project. Dwight Merritt entered a woodworking project, and Dick Davis placed 19th in the tractor rodeo.

Others who placed in the livestock competition were Steve Coe, fourth place in lightweight Chester White barrows; Brad Walters, ninth place in lightweight Duroc barrows; Debbie Cremeans, ninth place in middleweight Duroc barrows; Lowell Miller, 11th place in middleweight Duroc barrows.

Mark Holloway, third place in middleweight Hampshire barrows; Tony Walters, 10th place lightweight Hampshire barrow; Daphne O'Cull, third place Hampshire sheep and seventh place in all other breeds; Annette Cowden, third place Shopshire wether; Jill Schlichter, eighth place suffolk and sixth place crossbred ewe; Betsy Hartman, 13th and 23rd place crossbred ewes.

J.T. Perrill, third place steer; Louie Null, sixth place steer; Tim Lindsey, fifth and eighth place steers; Vicki Parks, fifth and 12th place steers; Mary Ann Wilson, sixth, eighth, 12th and 16th place steers; and Bill and John Mayer, who placed in steer competition.

Other local exhibitors included John and Jeff Wilt, Mike Sollars, Jeff Hughes, Chris Garland, Tammy and Tony Walters, Linda Miller, Jim McCoy, Bill, Sandy, Tim Schaefer in hog competition; and Debbie Wehner, Kim McIntosh, Lisa, John, Don and Fred Melvin in sheep events.

Miscellaneous matters handled by commission

Only minor business was on the agenda of the Fayette County Board of Commissioners Monday morning.

The commissioners approved a request by the Fayette County Soil Conservation Service for an additional appropriation of $2,600. The money will be used to pay for an additional 16 weeks salary of Vincent Chrisman, assistant to the supervisor. Chrisman was originally hired under a grant from the U.S. Soil Conservation Service. He assists in drafting and survey work.

They also approved a minor repair and remodeling project at the Fayette County Health Department building and authorized the purchase of a storage cabinet and a four drawer file cabinet.

The commissioners were scheduled to open bids at 11 a.m. for a 16 by 60 foot silo to be constructed on the county farm but no bids were received.

Commissioners chairman Ray Warner also announced that the first hearing on the Rattlesnake joint ditch project was held Thursday. However, no action was taken and the hearing was continued 90 days so more information on the project could be obtained. The hearing date was scheduled for 1:30 p.m. Nov. 20 at the Mahan Building on the Fayette County Fairgrounds.

The Pollock children are Debra, 4; Scott, 5; Gregg, 10, and John, 15.

Justice Department watchdog plan being studied by Levi

WASHINGTON (AP) — Atty. Gen. Edward H. Levi is considering appointing an internal Justice Department "watchdog" to investigate any future department scandals.

Levi and Deputy Atty. Gen. Harold R. Tyler Jr. are weighing the question while dealing with allegations of misdeeds in four major department agencies — the FBI, the Drug Enforcement Administration, the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration, and the Immigration and Naturalization Service.

The department as a whole and several of its branches have been brushed with accusations of scandal, some serious and some mere personality clashes, over the past three years.

The peak, of course, was Watergate and charges that department officials helped in the cover-up. The key department officials involved in the Watergate case all have resigned or retired, and their successors now search for ways to avoid being suspected of covering up crimes in the future.

Elliot L. Richardson, the attorney general who Nixon forced out of office during the Watergate case, proposed creating an inspector general's office as an independent investigator of department scandals.

His successor, William B. Saxbe, issued an order establishing such an operation last January. But the order took effect about two weeks before Saxbe resigned and never has been implemented.

Levi and Tyler now are considering whether to create a permanent full-time investigative office or to employ the same technique on a temporary basis in response to specific allegations.

In an interview, Tyler said department officials were on the verge of creating the permanent office at the time he became deputy attorney general four months ago.

"I said 'Wait a minute. Once you set up an office, you have to be sure there's something for them to do, you can't have everybody sitting around contemplating the walls,'" Tyler related.

Tyler indicated that he leans toward the ad hoc approach, with any allegations of misdeeds triggering a probe by department officials not connected with the accused agency. But he said, "I wouldn't say that's final. It's still very much up in the air."

Air crash kills man

CIRCLEVILLE, Ohio (AP) — One person was killed and another critically injured in the crash of a light plane during a fly-in at Pickaway County Veterans Memorial Airport Sunday afternoon.
The Pickaway County sheriff's office identified the man killed as a passenger, David Valentine, of near Stoutsville.
The pilot, Charles Fletcher, 54, of near Circleville, was taken to Doctors Hospital North in Columbus, where he was listed in critical condition.
According to witnesses, Fletcher's plane, a single-engine Taylorcraft, had just made a mock "bombing" run over the field where it dropped a paper bag full of sand.

They said the plane began to turn, then suddenly veered 180 degrees and plunged into the ground.
According to Sheriff Dwight Radcliff and Deputy J. Phillip Brown, who investigated the crash, the plane smashed into a field of wheat stubble about 200 yards from the end of the runway.
They said it took about 45 minutes to pry the two men from the wreckage.
The Federal Aviation Administration is investigating.

Jesuit priest marries woman

WASHINGTON (AP) — Dr. John J. McLaughlin, a Jesuit priest who was a White House adviser to President Richard M. Nixon, has married a woman who helped him in an unsuccessful Senate campaign five years ago.
McLaughlin and Anne Dore were married in a civil ceremony here Saturday. McLaughlin was released from his religious vows by Pope Paul VI before the wedding, a friend said.
McLaughlin was a staunch Nixon defender during Nixon's last days in office. He had held the White House post for three years, until Oct. 15, 1974.

Mrs. Dore, in her 30s, helped McLaughlin when he ran against Sen. John O. Pastore, D-R.I., in 1970. She later worked in public relations here and is employed by a private firm.
Ohio became widely known as the Buckeye State only in the Presidential campaign of 1840. Then William Henry Harrison was termed in a song "The Buckeye who follows the plow."

TV Viewing

By LEE MARGULIES
Associated Press Writer
LOS ANGELES (AP) — "Beacon Hill," a new series which CBS is unveiling with a special two-hour episode tonight—9-11 p.m. EDT, is a well-crafted and mildly engaging piece of material based unabashedly on "Upstairs, Downstairs."
Like its critically acclaimed English sire, seen in this country on the Public Broadcasting Service, "Beacon Hill" contrasts the rich and the poor in a colorful historical context.
The setting here is Boston, 1920, the eve of Prohibition. The household is that of Benjamin Lassiter, rich and powerful patriarch of a large Irish-American family and employer of a horde of servants.
The program, in which Lassiter and his wife, Mary, return home from Europe and plan a big party to usher in Prohibition, begins slowly because there are something like 20 main characters to meet and somehow keep track of.
It takes about 30 or 40 minutes to sort out names and faces and relationships, but after that the pace improves and it gets more interesting. There are some very funny moments interspersed with the drama.
In many respects, "Beacon Hill" is like a soap opera: lots of talk, little action, a preoccupation with people and their foibles — their faltering relationships, their drinking, their love affairs.
Especially their love affairs. Before the two hours are up we've learned of romantic entanglements between one of Benjamin Lassiter's four daughters and her voice teacher; the same daughter and one of her brothers-in-law; another daughter and a nephew of one of the servants; and Lassiter's 18-year-old granddaughter and his chauffeur.

There also are two visits by the chauffeur and Lassiter's one son to a brothel — where, by the way, just in case someone in the audience doesn't understand what profession these ladies are in, the writer has named the black madam Hortense.
Now if you're paying attention you'll note that in addition to all the other intrigue, there's a terrific blackmail angle here for the chauffeur. Beginning to get the drift? And this, mind you, is only the first episode.
"Beacon Hill" is so lavishly produced and boasts such uniformly fine performances and meticulous attention to details of the period that it seems somehow weightier than a regular old soap.
A sidelight on how insane the television industry is:
One of the CBS executives who played a key role in the development of "Beacon Hill" was Fred Silverman, head of programming. Since the schedule was announced, however, he has become president of ABC Entertainment and now is trying to sabotage the series.
Knowing the show is vulnerable in the early going because of its huge cast, Silverman is challenging it with a rerun of a successful ABC-TV movie, "The Legend of Lizzie Borden" with Elizabeth Montgomery.

5 women planning ordination

WASHINGTON (AP) — Five more women plan to be ordained to the Episcopal priesthood in defiance of their church's hierarchy.
The five women, all deacons of the Episcopal Church, have sent letters to each of the more than 200 bishops of the church notifying them of their plans, according to the Rev. Alison Palmer.
The Rev. Palmer, who also is director of the Office of International Labor Affairs for the State Department, said Sunday night that she and the other four women will be ordained Sept. 7 at St. Stephen and the Incarnation Church in Washington by the Rt. Rev. George W. Barrett, 67, former bishop of Rochester, N.Y., now living in Santa Barbara, Calif.

The Rev. Palmer described the forthcoming ordinations as "valid but irregular." The ordinations of 11 women July 29, 1974, in a Philadelphia ceremony later were ruled invalid by the church's House of Bishops.
"Nothing in Episcopal Church canon law prohibits ordination of women to the priesthood," the women said in their letter to the bishops. "Yet our diocesan bishops refuse to ordain us priests despite months of effort by us and by many in our dioceses to influence them to proceed." cided by a majority vote."
The church's bishops have agreed to withhold ordination from women until the church's General Convention meeting in 1976 can vote on the matter.

County gridgers shine in scrimmages

Both Fayette County prep coaches have seen films of Saturday's first interscholastic scrimmage, and both returned favorable comments on their squads' performance.

The Washington Blue Lions met Ottawa-Glandorf at the Washington Senior High practice field on Saturday in a controlled scrimmage.

Head Coach Maurice Pfeifer played his first unit during one ten-play series and his second unit in one series, then the first and second teams' lines switched backfields on both offense and defense.

"We were looking for depth," explained Pfeifer, "and we were trying to decide on who to play in positions that were still up for grabs."

The Washington coaching staff was pleased with the pursuit by the Blue Lions defensive line. Brian Haines, Richard Halthcock and Jim Hardy were singled out for their defensive work on the line in the morning scrimmage, while Bret Shaw earned praise for his play on the defensive corner.

"The offense played as well as could be expected at this point," the Blue Lion mentor said. "We could blow them out up the middle and move the ball, but we wanted to try other things. They weren't as big as some teams we will play and we won't always be able to do that," he explained.

Leading quarterback candidate Greg Marti did see some action Saturday despite an ankle sprain suffered earlier this week, but he was termed as "a no running threat" by the coaching staff.

Junior Mark Heiny was "a pleasant surprise" at the quarterback job according to Coach Roger Mickle. He reportedly showed great offensive leadership.

Not everything went well during the scrimmage. Coach Pfeifer said his passing game "left a lot to be desired."

The Blue Lions worked on defense Monday morning and were slated to hold a light workout in the afternoon before the annual "Photograph Blue Lions Day."

Miami Trace head coach Fred Zechman said his Panther squad also showed some bright spots during their Saturday scrimmage.

"Our defensive line showed good aggressiveness with senior Greg Cobb turning in an outstanding game at linebacker," Zechman said.

The Panther coach was also pleased with the work of defensive end John Schlichter, who sacked the opposition's quarterback four times during the scrimmage. Dan Lebeau and Steve Wilson also turned in fine performances along the defensive line while sophomore David Creamer shined in the defensive secondary.

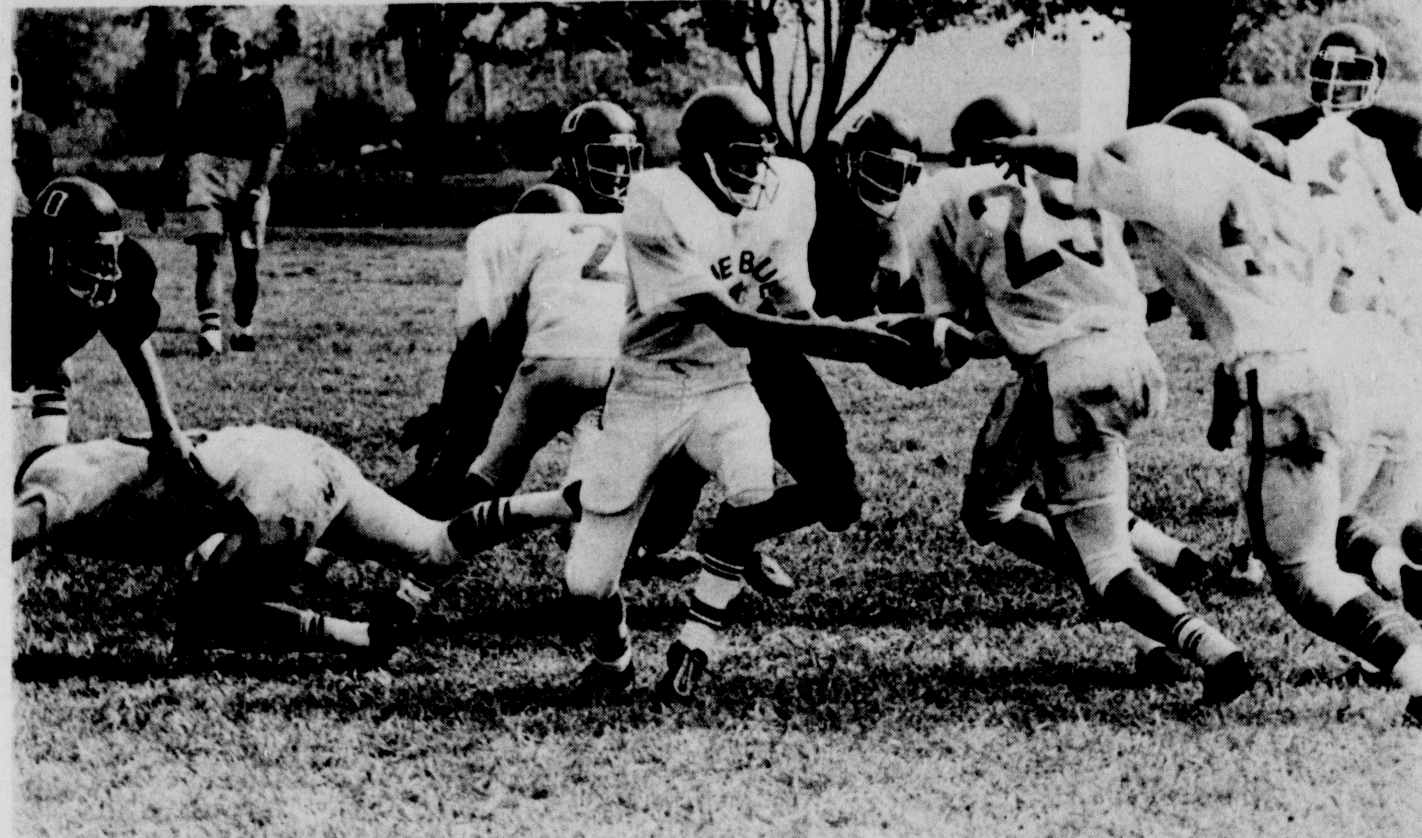

The Panther's first team offense ran up 300 total yards while playing about half the time. The offensive blocking was a bright spot with Wilson and Jack James doing a fine job.

Sophomore quarterback Art Schlichter tossed a touchdown pass to end John Schlichter as the Panthers completed six of 12 tosses during the scrimmage.

The running of Bruce Ervin and Rex Coe accounted for most of the Panthers' ground yardage.

"Overall we were well pleased with the scrimmage. We got to see each player on film and saw his mistakes," Zechman said. "The films gave us some idea who we will start next scrimmage."

The Panthers will hold their second interscholastic scrimmage Wednesday.

A WIDE OPEN HOLE—Washington Blue Lions blow them out of the middle in Saturday's interscholastic scrimmage against Ottawa-Glandorf. Coach Pfeifer said his team could move the ball well up the middle as in this play, but he had his squad running more intricate offensive plays in preparation for the season's opening game which is less than two weeks away.

Bengals Dominate Green Bay, 27-10

CINCINNATI (AP)—Exhibition game or not, the Cincinnati Bengals were elated after not only defeating the Green Bay Packers, but actually dominating them.

"In the past games we always more or less tied them both on offense and defense," said veteran defensive tackle Ron Carpenter.

"But this is the first time we ever really beat them. I mean the offense was biting off five and eight yards a play and the defense really bottled them up."

"Their only real scoring play was a 52-yard field goal and I'll give any team as many chances as they want to try 52-yard field goals. They can't win doing that."

"They are doing fundamentally very well the things that they are doing," said Coach Paul Brown of the Packers under freshman Coach Bart Starr. "He needs time — they need time, everybody knows that."

"You learn more in a loss," said Starr, after losing 27-10, "it points out some of your weaknesses and we had quite a few pointed out."

"I was hoping that Steve Odom's run would turn the game around but it didn't."

Odom took the second half kickoff on the goal line and streaked for a 100-yard touchdown.

"We're not the first team he's done that to," chuckled Brown. "And we won't be the last. I wasn't concerned though. We had a lot of young people in there and they'll know better next time."

"Green Bay is Green Bay," said Bengals quarterback Ken Anderson, who predicted that 1975 will be "Cincinnati's year."

"We have a veteran, cohesive team now and barring injuries, we will be able to do pretty much everything."

"Our running backs are just fantastic but better than running, they are the best receivers in the league. It's a basic part of the Cincinnati offense."

Anderson, playing only the first half, hit 15 of 21 passes for 148 yards and three touchdowns, two of them long sprints by running backs Essex Johnson and Lenvil Elliott. End Bob Trumpy caught the other one.

Women's tourney

A women's ASA sanctioned slo-pitch softball tournament will be held over the Labor Day weekend at Wilmington's J. Denver Williams Jr. Memorial Park.

Open teams are excluded from the tourney and entry fee is set at $50. Trophies will be given to the top four finishers with individual awards going to the tourney champions.

Drawing for the tourney will be held at the park shelter house Thursday at 7:30 p.m.

Interested teams should contact Bill Robinson (513-382-2478) for more information.

Bosox magic number now 28

By HERSCHEL NISSENSEN
AP Sports Writer

The time has come to start talking about magic numbers when discussing the Boston Red Sox ... and the magic number is 28, with 20 and 17 not far behind.

"We should make it this time," Bill Lee said Sunday after defeating the Chicago White Sox 6-1 and closing in on 20 wins — a mark no Boston lefthander has achieved since Mel Parnell in 1953 — with his 17th triumph.

"We lost a lot of tight ball games last September when we just stopped hitting, but I don't think that's going to happen to this team," Lee continued. "And Baltimore isn't as strong a team as it was a year ago. They've been popping off for a long time about catching us, but they haven't gained any ground."

In fact, the Orioles lost ground when they dropped a disputed 8-7 decision to the Texas Rangers, falling 7½ games back in the American League's East Division. Both teams have 34 games remaining and any combination of 28 Boston wins and Baltimore losses will give the Red Sox the division flag.

Elsewhere, the Milwaukee Brewers edged the Oakland A's 7-6, the Kansas City Royals downed the Cleveland Indians 5-2, the California Angels took a pair from the New York Yankees 9-0 and 2-1 and the Minnesota Twins beat the Detroit Tigers 3-1.

Home runs by Carl Yastrzemski and Jim Rice backed Lee's clutch eight-hit pitching against the White Sox. Yaz drilled his 13th in the first inning and the Red Sox scored twice in the fifth on Fred Lynn's double, a single by Dwight Evans, Rick Burleson's sacrifice fly and singles by Bob Montgomery and Bob Heise. Rice continued the assault on Wilbur Wood by smashing his 20th homer in the sixth.

Royals 5, Indians 2

Hal McRae drove in two runs to back a combined seven-hitter by Al Fitzmorris and Doug Bird as the Kansas City Royals ended a three-game skid and climbed back to within 7½ games of Oakland in the AL West. McRae started the scoring in the first inning with his fifth home run of the season. Kansas City took the lead with two runs in the fourth, the first on John Mayberry's single and George Brett's RBI triple.

Brewers 7, A's 6

Milwaukee had to come from behind with three runs in the seventh and three more in the eighth to end an eight-game losing streak.

Pirates, Reds end in standoff

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Pittsburgh Pirates and the Cincinnati Reds, possible foes in the National League playoffs, have ended the regular season in a standoff.

The Pirates defeated the Reds 5-1 here Sunday as Jerry Reuss posted his 11th straight home victory with the help of a homer and a triple by Al Oliver.

Sunday's loss was the Reds' third in four weekend games here, but they beat the Pirates four straight a week ago in Cincinnati.

Each team finished the regular season series with six victories, and each side was 4-2 at home.

"The Pirates have a good team," said third baseman Pete Rose of the Reds, runaway leaders in the National League West.

"But we have a better one, and we'd like to prove it in the playoffs," Rose added.

AUTOGRAPH TIME — Former Ohio State and pro grid star Rex Kern signs autographs during Sunday's free Pony League Football clinic at the Washington Middle School. Kern was on hand at the clinic to discuss equipment and techniques for Pony League age gridders. The former all-American quarterback retired from pro football this year because of an ailing back. He had been a starter in the Buffalo Bills' defensive secondary.

Sunday's victory was the Pirates' fifth in six home games after returning from a dismal 2-12 road trip.

"On that road trip, we just weren't hitting, and the only way we can win is to hit consistently," said Pirate Coach Don Leppert.

The Pirates lead the National League East by three games over second-place St. Louis and 3½ games over Philadelphia, which fell into third by losing a doubleheader Sunday in San Diego.

The Pirates were outthru 9-5 Sunday, but crucial hits were provided by Oliver and Rennie Stennett.

On Saturday, it was Stennett whose two-out error opened the way for seven unearned runs that helped Cincinnati defeat Pittsburgh 12-7 on national television.

On Sunday, Stennett led off the first inning with a single and scored on a triple by Oliver, who then scored on a sacrifice fly by Willie Stargell.

The sacrifice fly marked Stargell's return to the Pirate lineup after a 12-game absence due to a fractured rib.

In the third inning, Stennett singled and scored when Oliver hit his 15th homer of the season. The belt to left-center came off losing pitcher Gary Nolan.

Richie Zisk opened the Pirate seventh with a double off Pedro Borbon. Then Zisk moved to third on a fly ball and scored on a squeeze bunt by Duffy Dyer.

Reuss, 14-9 overall, lost to the Expos in Pittsburgh on April 12, but he's won 11 in a row at home since then.

"We always seem to play better at home. It's just one of those things," he said.

The lone Cincinnati run came in the first inning when Joe Morgan singled, took third on a single by Rose and scored on a sacrifice fly by Johnny Bench.

While Ed Halicki was throwing zeroes at the New York Mets in San Francisco, the Dodgers were coming up empty in Los Angeles.

Not that they didn't score, hit or steal bases. But while Halicki was the reason the Mets lost a 6-0 no-hitter Sunday, the Dodgers had themselves to blame for a 5-3, 14-inning loss to Montreal.

Virtually everything that could have gone wrong went that way for Los Angeles, which wasted 11 innings of four-hit pitching by Don Sutton; had an apparent winning run nullified when an illegal Dodgers bat was discovered, and saw the winning Expos run score on a wild pitch by Mike Marshall.

The Mets, at least, were overpowered by a pitcher who permitted only four batted balls to reach the outfield; one who missed the strike zone only 35 times in 122 pitches. Four batted balls to the Los Angeles infield turned into errors — two by Dave Lopes and two by Phil Russell — and then there was Marshall's toss away from the strike zone and away from catcher Steve Yeager.

It was the classic contrast of perfection and bombast at two major league parks in the same state. Halicki, once a Met fan, owned them Sunday — just as mistakes owned the Dodgers.

Elsewhere in the NL, it was Houston 8, Chicago 4; St. Louis 6, Atlanta 2 and Pittsburgh 5, Cincinnati 1 while San Diego swept Philadelphia 7-2 and 7-6 in 12 innings.

Cardinals 6, Braves 2

"Speed is the name of the game, no matter what you're doing," said St. Louis Manager Red Schoendienst after Lou Brock stole the 800th and 801st bases of his career and Willie Davis got out of a first-inning rundown to help the Cardinals roll over the Atlanta Braves.

Padres 7-7, Phillies 2-6

Randy Jones picked up 17th victory with an eight-hitter in the opener before Bobby Tolan's 12th-inning single completed the sweep for the Padres.

Getting Children to Take Medicine

Help! I simply can't get my children to take any medicine. Do you have any ideas?

Mrs. T.K., Nev.

Dear Mrs. K.: I don't blame you for trying hard to find an answer to this universal problem.

Parents, subjected to the tyranny of children who adamantly refuse to take medicine, know the agonizing moments of despair and frustration.

I pass on to you a suggestion made by Dr. Leon Horowitz, of Tulsa, Okla. In the excellent medical magazine, "Consultant," he says: "The child who balks at taking liquid medication from a teaspoon or medicine glass may be more cooperative if you put the medication in a paper cup, add a little water and give him a straw."

A great idea. I've tried it, and it works. Another suggestion: When children are very young, parents should firmly lay down the ground rules for medicine taking. Once the pattern is established that medicine must be taken without a fuss, parents do not have the problem that you describe.

When a Cesarean operation is performed, is there any greater danger to the newborn infant than when the baby is delivered normally?

Mrs. W.L., W.V.

Dear Mrs. L.:

A Cesarean operation is usually done when there is a problem that may adversely affect the safety of the child or the mother.

If the baby's head is too large, or if the mother's pelvis is too small, or if prolonged labor is adversely affecting the child or the mother, this safe operation is done.

The need for Cesarean surgery is usually anticipated long in advance. It can be planned for, and therefore imposes no hardship on the newborn child.

In fact, there is far less pressure made on the infant when Cesarean section is the choice of delivery.

SPEAKING OF YOUR HEALTH. Factory workers tend to become careless about using protective devices that are provided for them. Such carelessness is contagious. One worker follows the example of his working neighbor. Many thus are unnecessarily exposed to the hazards of their occupation.

ORDINANCE NO. 31-75
AN ORDINANCE TO PROVIDE FOR THE ISSUANCE OF A NOTE IN ANTICIPATION OF THE ISSUANCE OF BONDS FOR THE PURPOSE OF PAYING THE COSTS OF RESURFACING CERTAIN STREETS WITH NO. 404 ASPHALTIC ROAD SURFACING MATERIAL, TOGETHER WITH ALL INCIDENTAL WORK IN CONNECTION THEREWITH, AND DECLARING AN EMERGENCY.

WHEREAS, pursuant to Ordinance No. 38-71, passed August 11, 1971, a note of the City of Washington in the principal amount of $70,000 and dated September 9, 1971 was issued for the purpose hereinafter stated, which note matured on September 8, 1972; and

WHEREAS, a portion of the principal of such note was retired from funds on hand and the balance thereof was funded by the issuance of a $56,000 note dated September 8, 1972 pursuant to Ordinance No. 53-72, passed September 13, 1972 which note was issued for the purpose hereinafter stated and matured on September 7, 1973; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to Ordinance No. 47-73, passed August 29, 1973, a note in the principal amount of $42,000 and dated September 7, 1973 was issued to renew the balance of said note after retiring a portion of the principal thereof, which note matured on September 6, 1974; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to Ordinance No. 43-74, passed August 28, 1974, a note in the principal amount of $42,000 and dated September 6, 1974 was issued for the purpose hereinafter stated, which note is about to mature; and

WHEREAS, in order to retire said outstanding note, this Council has determined that a new note in the principal amount of $42,000 shall be issued; and

WHEREAS, the Auditor, as fiscal officer of this City, has heretofore certified to this Council that the estimated life of the improvement contemplated is at least five years, that the maximum maturity of the bonds hereinafter referred to is twenty years, and that the maximum maturity of notes to be issued in anticipation of said bonds is five years from the date of the original note, namely, September 9, 1976, or one year if sold privately;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED by the Council of the City of Washington, Fayette County, Ohio:

Section 1. That it is hereby declared necessary to issue bonds of the City of Washington in the principal sum of $42,000 for the purpose of resurfacing certain streets with No. 404 asphaltic road surfacing material, together with all incidental work in connection therewith.

Section 2. That said bonds shall be dated approximately September 1, 1976, shall bear interest at the estimated rate of six per centum (6 per cent) per annum, payable semi-annually, until the principal sum is paid, and shall mature in twenty substantially equal annual installments after their issuance.

Section 3. That for the purpose aforesaid, it is necessary to issue and this Council hereby determines that a note in the principal amount of $42,000 shall be issued. Such anticipatory note shall bear interest at the rate of five and one-quarter per centum (5 1/4 per cent) per annum, payable at maturity. Such note shall be dated September 5, 1975 and shall mature on or before September 3, 1976.

Section 4. Such note shall be executed by the City Manager and Auditor and shall be the real of the City of Washington, Ohio, and shall express upon its face the purpose for which it is issued and that it is issued pursuant to this ordinance.

Section 5. Subject to the rejection of said note by the officer in charge of the Bond Retirement Fund for investment in such fund, said note shall be and hereby is awarded and sold to the Huntington Bank of Washington Court House, Washington Court House, Ohio, at the par value thereof; and the Treasurer is hereby authorized and directed to deliver said note, when executed, to said purchaser upon payment of such purchase price and accrued interest to the date of delivery. The proceeds of such sale shall be paid into the proper fund and used for the purpose for which said note is being issued under the provisions of this ordinance. Any premium and accrued interest shall be credited to the Bond Retirement Fund to be applied to the payment of principal and interest of said note in the manner provided by law. The City hereby covenants that it will restrict the use of the proceeds of the note in such manner and to such extent, if any, as may be necessary to conform to the reasonable expectations at the time the debt is incurred, so that it will not constitute arbitrage bonds under Section 103(d) of the Internal Revenue Code and the regulations prescribed under that section. The fiscal officer or any other officer, including the Clerk, having responsibility with respect to the issuance of this note is authorized and directed to give an appropriate certificate on behalf of the City, for inclusion in the transcript of proceedings, setting forth the facts, estimates and circumstances and reasonable expectations pertaining to said note and any excess funds resulting from the issuance of said note shall to the extent necessary be used only for the retirement of said note at maturity, together with interest thereon, and is hereby pledged for such purpose.

Section 7. During the year or years while such note runs there shall be levied on all the taxable property in said City, in addition to all other taxes, a direct tax annually not less than that which would have been levied if bonds had been issued therefor without the prior issue of said note. Said tax shall be and is hereby ordered computed, certified, levied and extended upon the tax duplicate and collected by the same officers, in the same manner and at the same time that taxes for general purposes for each of said years are certified, extended and collected. Said tax shall be placed before and in preference to all other taxes and for the full amount thereof. The funds derived from said tax levies hereby required shall be placed in a separate and distinct fund, which, together with the interest collected on the same, shall be irrevocably pledged for the payment of the principal and interest of said note or the bonds in anticipation of which it is issued when and as the same falls due.

Section 8. It is hereby determined and recited that all acts, conditions and things necessary to be done, precedent to and in the issuing of said note in order to make it a legal, valid and binding obligation of the City of Washington have happened, been done and performed in regular and due form and as required by law; and that no limitation of indebtedness or taxation, either statutory or constitutional, will have been exceeded in the issuance of said note.

Section 9. The Clerk is hereby directed to forward a certified copy of this ordinance to the County Auditor.

Section 10. This ordinance is hereby declared to be an emergency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health, safety and welfare of said City and for the further reason that the immediate sale of said note is necessary to enable the City to retire said outstanding note and thus protect the credit of the City; wherefore, this ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and immediately after its passage.

Opening lead - seven of diamonds.

There is a saying among experts that if a contract can be made it should be made, and if a contract can be defeated it should be defeated. Nevertheless, the top players don't always live up to this billing - not even in world championship play.

For example, consider this deal played in the U.S.-China match in 1970. The Taiwanese North-South pair at the first table got to four hearts and West led his singleton diamond.

The American East won with the king and was faced with the problem of whether to play another diamond, hoping to create a trump trick for West, or whether to play the ten of spades at trick two.

After long thought, East returned the ten of spades and declarer made four hearts. South's only losers were a diamond and two spades.

But if East had led a diamond at trick two, preferably a low one, South might well have failed in his mission. In order to make the contract, he would have had to ruff with the ace and play the ten of hearts next, planning to finesse if West followed low.

If West covered the ten with the jack, South would later have to finesse dummy's five of hearts to bring the contract home! Declarer would probably not have played the hand in this sensational way and very likely would have gone down one.

At the second table, the American North-South pair also got to four hearts after an opening three diamond bid. Again West led his singleton diamond, and again East's return was the ten of spades. So again South made four hearts, and what do you now think of the expert's vaunted prowess?

Variety of offenses probed

An attempted burglary, four incidents of vandalism, two larcenies, an attempted suicide and a dog bite were reported by Washington C.H. police today. The Fayette County Sheriff's Department reported two incidents of vandalism, a larceny, a drug overdose and a personal illness.

A burglar locked David and Beverly Loudner out of their 811 McLean St. residence at 12:30 a.m. Sunday when the couple, accompanied by

Washington C.H. Police Ptl. Mike Stritenberger, went outside the house to investigate noises they had heard. Police reported when the Loudners turned to re-enter their house, the front screen door was latched. They went around to the rear of the residence and found the rear door, the patio door and the garage door open. These had been locked before the incident and are believed by police to have been the escape route taken by the burglar.

Investigation is continuing and police reported damage to the patio screen.

A Washington C.H. man was admitted to Fayette Memorial Hospital for observation after having his stomach pumped. City police reported the man was found in his bed after taking several tranquilizers and aspirin in a suicide attempt due to despondency over domestic problems.

An eight-track player belonging to Billy J. Penwell Jr., was stolen from his car while the vehicle was parked in front of his 742 Washington Ave. residence at 2 a.m. Sunday. Police reported the wing window forced to allow entry.

A rock was thrown through a window at the Guy Underwood residence, 1122 E. Temple St., sometime Saturday police reported.

A window valued at $15 was broken by a rock at Belle Aire Elementary School, 1120 High St., sometime over the weekend, police reported.

Two windows valued at $50 were broken by rocks at Rose Avenue Elementary School over the weekend. Police Ptl. Tony Wilson discovered the damage.

A plate glass window measuring five feet by six feet was broken by a rock at Great Oaks Construction Co., 221 Oakland Ave., sometime between 5 p.m. Friday and 7:30 a.m. Saturday. Police reported the rock also shattered a glass desk top.

Two $20 bills concealed in a cosmetic case were stolen from Martha J. Shaw, 224 1/2 S. Fayette St., at 11:45 p.m. Friday. Police believe the theft to have occurred at the Dublin Bar on Court Street.

Sue A. Rohde, 643 Willabar Dr., was bitten on the right thigh by a dog at 9:15 p.m. Sunday while in her backyard. She was treated and released at Fayette Memorial Hospital.

A wallet containing $140 belonging to Leland R. Wilson, Golden, Col., was stolen along with the pair of pants it was in while Wilson was showering at 10:30 a.m. at Garner's Union 76 Truck Stop, I-71 and U.S. 35. Fayette County Sheriff's deputies are investigating the theft.

A truck belonging to Hugh P. Morarity, Bloomingburg-New Holland Road, was broken into sometime between 12 a.m. and 8 a.m. Friday, while parked at Union Stockyards on Ohio 41-S. A magnetic ashtray, four lightbulbs, five pop bottles, a set of points and a condenser were stolen. Sheriff's deputies reported the motive for the theft was probably a citizens band radio. Morarity removed from the truck.

Julian Odegaard, Mason, was found by Sheriff's Deputy David Souther lying on his back complaining of back, neck and arm pain plus dizziness at 1:50 a.m. Sunday on the Ohio 41-N entrance ramp onto I-71. Odegaard, a driver for Consolidated Freight, Cincinnati, was taken to Fayette Memorial Hospital. His condition is not known at this time.

A paper box bracket and a mail box holder were damaged between 2 a.m. and 9 a.m. Sunday at the Raymond J. Rodgers Jr., residence, 3602 Worthington Rd., sheriff's deputies reported.

Three juveniles, ages 9, 9 and 8, were found breaking out the windows of a 1960 Cadillac parked at the Armbrust septic tank building, 401 Albin Ave., at 7:30 p.m. Sunday. Sheriff's deputies did not release the names or addresses of the children or state whether or not they were charged.

A 63-year-old Mount Sterling woman took an overdose of pills at 5 p.m. Friday. Sheriff's deputies reported the woman treated and released at Fayette Memorial Hospital.

Girl slain in Columbus

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Police said Christine Mullins, 14, apparently was clubbed to death after she went to a shopping center complex to take part in what she thought was a cheerleading contest.

The girl's body was found in a wooded area behind the shopping center on the city's north side Saturday. A witness who had been walking nearby with his wife and daughter said he saw the girl being clubbed with a board, police said.

Police said a neighbor girl said she received a telephone call from someboy claiming he was a radio disc jockey and was having a cheerleading contest, good for a pass to the Ohio State Fair.

The other girl, police said, met Christine on the way to the shopping center. When they arrived no one was there, and the neighbor girl went into the center to check the time.

Detective Robert Litzinger said when the neighbor girl came out of the store she couldn't find Christine. The eye-witness to the beating told police the man wielding the club fled when he was spotted.

Police are looking for a young man between 17 and 21.

Suspect free on bond

Officer assaulted while in cruiser

A Washington C.H. police officer was assaulted while sitting in his cruiser at the corner of Peabody Avenue and Pearl Street at 12:08 a.m. Monday.

Police Chief Rodman Scott explained Ptl. Larry Mongold, who was accompanied at the time by police jailer-dispatcher Steve Jennings, was observing the area for suspects believed to be involved with the larceny of a lawnmower belonging to Jack Ferguson, 423 Earl St. Chief Scott stated a car pulled next to the cruiser, slammed on its brakes and then the driver exited and rapidly approached the police cruiser. Ptl. Mongold rolled down the window to ask the man, Albert A. Hodge, 26, of 907 Forest St., what the trouble was and Hodge reportedly struck Ptl. Mongold in the face with his fist. Ptl. Mongold was able to fight Hodge off, exit the cruiser and subdue Hodge who was arrested with assaulting a police officer and incarcerated.

Hodge is presently free on $1,000 bond and Ptl. Mongold was treated for abrasions of the right eye and right hand and neck.

Chief Scott added Ferguson's stolen lawnmower was recovered abandoned in the vicinity of Earl Avenue.

Seek overturn of Gandhi acts

NEWDELHI, India (AP) — Lawyers for opponents of Prime Minister Indira Gandhi, arguing that the future of democracy in India is at stake, asked the Supreme Court on Monday to overturn a constitutional amendment nullifying her conviction of corrupt electoral practices.

The outcome of the hearing could have a far-reaching impact not only on Mrs. Gandhi's political future but also on the relationship between the Indian judiciary and Parliament and on the constitution itself.

Hospital deaths eyed

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — Officials at a Veterans Administration Hospital where eight patients died of respiratory arrest in a three-week period say they cannot rule out murder after a week of investigation.

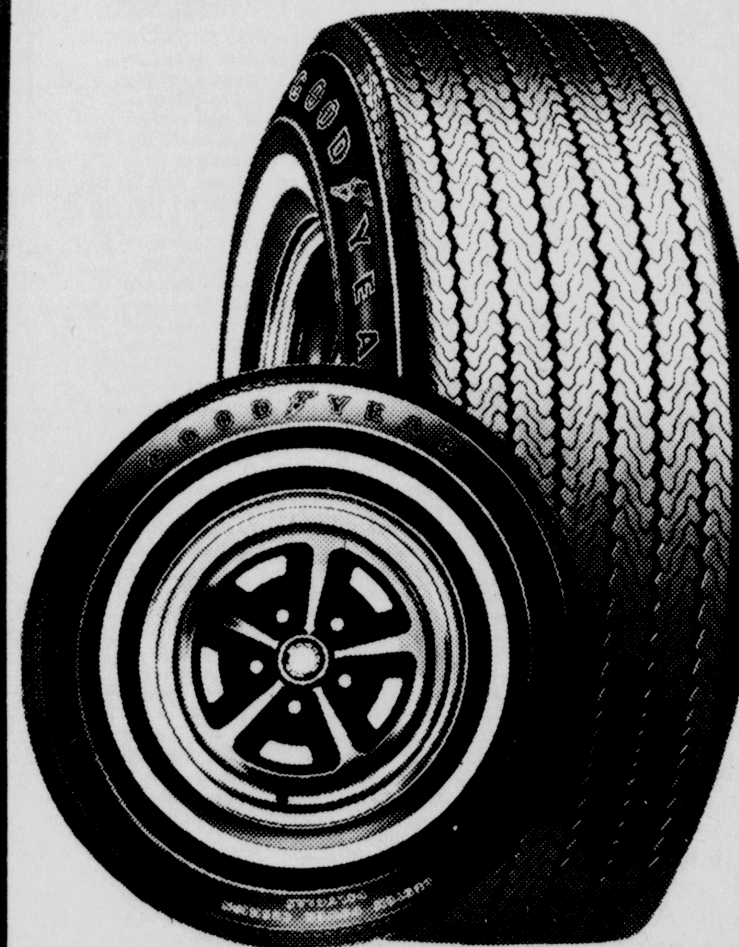

FBI agents have joined the probe, along with a VA investigatory medical team.

In a statement issued Sunday, the hospital said there was a "critical suspicion" that the cause of the respiratory arrests was injection of a muscle relaxant that could have paralyzed a patient's breathing. But it added that it had not yet been determined if any such injections caused the deaths.

Nearly 50 of the hospital's patients stopped breathing at one time or another since July 1.
